Foreword to the English edition

All praises are due to Allah, the Lord of the worlds. I bear witness that there is no one worthy of worship except Allah alone and that Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) is His Servant and Messenger.

I wrote this English foreword after a brother called to my attention that the theme dealt with in this book was very difficult to understand in the English language, firstly because it has been translated from the Arabic language and secondly because the English reader is not so familiar with this topic. Therefore, I hope that by means of this foreword I will be able to explain to the reader all which is essential in order to attain the correct understanding of this book.

As it is well known, Islam is derived from two sources: the Qur'an and the Sunnah. In both of them Allah (swt) has explained to mankind all that it needs in this Dunya (world) and the Aakhirah (hereafter). Since it is from the known attributes of Allah (swt) that He is Al-Hakeem, the All-Wise, it is unimaginable that if He wants to explain something to mankind, He would not do this with utmost clarity; all issues must definitely be plainly explained in these two sources. If this point is applicable to this Deen in general, in all its issues, how then must it be for the very explanation of the fundament of this Deen? Is it imaginable that Al-Hakeem with His infinite Hikmah (Wisdom) did not sufficiently explain the most important issue in Islam? Never! Therefore, it ought to be clear to every Muslim, and he must know that Allah (swt) explained with utmost clarity what Islam is – its precise limits and its precise definition. Additionally, He even repeated this definition again and again. For this is the foundation – the most important issue in Islam – upon which all the rest is constructed.

It is often repeated that Islam is so easy to understand, yet when you take a look at the reality you see that the understanding which people have of Islam is entirely chaotic. The answers to questions such as “What is Islam”, “What is a Muslim”, “What is Shirk” and “What is a Mushrik” are anything but clear. If this Islam is really so easy to understand – and by Allah it is, it really is – why do so few people grasp it and why do we find so many differences in opinions? The answers to these questions need to be clear: the ambiguity definitely does not lie in the explanations provided by the Creator; it lies solely in the creation. Some do not want to understand it from the beginning and others understand it very well but cannot or do not want to accept it for their own reality and implement it into their own lives.

In how many narrations did the Prophet (saw) define Islam? How often was he asked “Oh Messenger of Allah! What is Islam?” Did he not again and again reply: “That you worship Allah alone and you do not associate anything with Him”?

Ibnu Taymiyya (may Allah have mercy on him) as well as many others repeatedly emphasized this, namely that you must only refer to the Qur'an and the Sunnah for the question “What is Islam”. This question has been answered with the definition given by the Prophet (saw) – there is no need of philosophy and no complex thinking. How easy this Islam is but how difficult many make it for themselves to understand or accept.

Even Abu Jahl and Abu Lahab (on them is the curse of Allah) knew this very well and they rejected it merely because they knew it and understood it so well. It was the philosophers who began to worship their (own) intellect and then placed it above the Qur'an and Sunnah. They thought that "La Ilaaha illa Allah" means "there is no "god", no creator, no giver of life, no provider...except Allah". So Allah (Glory be to Him) punished them with their ignorance. Whoever has even a little bit of knowledge of the Qur'an must consequently know that "Ilaah" means "one who is worshipped" and not, for instance "god" or "creator", as they claim.

The Mushrikoon (those who commit Shirk by worshipping others besides Allah) knew with surety that "La Ilaaha illa Allah" means "there is no one (worthy) of worship except Allah". They said so clearly:

{أَجْعَلْ "الْإِلَهَةَ إِلَهًا وَاحِدًا إِنَّ هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ عَجَابٌ"}

"Has he made the Aalihah (those whom they worship besides Allah) all into One Ilaah (Allah)? Verily, this is really something very strange!"

(Saad, 38:5)

Quite clearly they meant to inquire: "Does he (Muhammad) want to make all those whom we worship into one worshipped alone?" Though when the philosophers, who preferred the Kufr of Aristotle over the Islam from Muhammad (saw), arrive at such verses and the many other similar verses they are overwhelmed with confusion until they are forced to switch off their minds.

When Musa (Moses, peace be upon him) and his people passed a group of people who were worshipping idols, did not the people of Musa say:

{اجْعَلْ لَنَا إِلَهًا كَمَا لَهُمْ آلِهَةٌ}

"...make for us (such) an Ilaah (one worth worshipping) the way they have Aalihah (those who are worshipped)."

(al-A'raaf, 7:138)

Does the word "Ilaah" in this verse here mean: Make a "Creator" for us, the way they have so many "Creators"? Or does it rather mean: "Make for us one worshipped, just like they also have many worshipped"? Whoever reads the commentaries of these unislamic philosophers concerning such verses, will find that their minds are completely on fire due to confusion. The ignorant people regard these as the greatest scholars who ever existed in history but in reality it is these so-called scholars who are the most ignorant concerning Allah and His Book and the Sunnah of His Messenger (may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him).

This is but a poison, which is taught in the entire so-called "Islamic" countries and in the majority of the so-called "Islamic" universities as the fundament of belief in Islam. Then you hear them asking one another: "How can someone claim that people have not understood Islam?", whereas their best scholars (the philosophers are referred to here) themselves have not understood the meanings of these verses. This is finally the poison which has almost completely caused Islam to crumble and bring us into this miserable condition, which we find ourselves in today.

Thus, the Mushrikoon knew the meaning of la Ilaaha illa Allah better than these “scholars”. They knew exactly that Allah exists, that he is the one and only Creator and Life-Giver and Provider (one who gives sustenance). Many verses in the Qur’an support this fact:

{وَلَيْنِ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ فَأَنَّى يُؤْفَكُونَ}

“And if you were to ask them, “Who has created the heavens and the earth and subjected the sun and the moon (to His Law)”, they will certainly reply: “Allah.” How are they then deluded away (from Allah and from worshipping him exclusively)?”

(Surah al-‘Ankaboot, 29:61)

The poison continues to press forward. In the last centuries it worked its way through to finally reach the root of this Deen and to almost entirely destroy it; now it is the turn of the crystal clear definition of Islam to be attacked. Shaytaan wishes to deface and change Allah’s religion completely – just like he did many times before. So, there came the Messengers to the nations who were absolutely convinced that they are all Muslims and that Allah loves them. However, the Prophets came and told them clearly in their faces that, which was “the unheard” for them, “the incomprehensible” and “the unimaginable”: “You are Mushrikoon!”, “You are not Muslims” and “Allah does not love you”. Consequently, there was war – and this is how the battle between good and evil, between Islam and Shirk began and is proceeding; since the first appearance of Shirk among the people of Nooh (peace be upon him) until the Day of Resurrection. Such is Allah’s (swt) Will, howsoever He has decreed it in His infinite Wisdom.

Now then people come along who have not understood the basis of Islam but they think they are Muslims and when you explain to them with clear evidences what Islam is, you notice them coming towards you suddenly with extreme hostility and enmity, but why? This is because now they have understood what Islam means in reality. Now have they understood the impact this may have on their community and on their families and that so many of those people in fact, have definitely not even understood Islam. When this becomes difficult to accept, they become the enemies of Islam and attempt to ruin it with all their might and all their means. Even worse, they do not say that they are not Muslims (unlike the Jews and the Christians – who do not call themselves Muslims), no – they continue to call themselves Muslims and as a result the confusion grows and the poison of Shaytaan can unfold its effect entirely.

Whoever understands this scheme of Shaytaan also grasps the degree of his crookedness. Like this he did with every community – the people did not fall into Shirk overnight, from one day to the other – no, in fact, as time went by they forgot what Allah actually wanted from them, just like the nation of Nooh (Noah). It cost Shaytaan a long process to make people think they are secure and will always remain Muslims. As if he slowly put them into a deep sleep, nothing left for them but to wake up as Mushrikoon – not even knowing or understanding why they are not Muslims anymore. Such the cursed one has always done with his unimaginable satanic craftiness. The reader, may Allah guide him and us all to Islam and may Allah let us die in Islam, must be aware that the majority of people who claim to be Muslims are full of this poison. Now it is necessary to identify this poison and to neutralize it, to wake up from this deadly sleep before it is too late to turn away from Shaytaan wholly and completely and to submit to Allah wholly and completely.

Shaytaan has accomplished the mission of making people unable to understand even the clearest issue in Islam, namely the basis of Islam itself. How was it possible to come so far? Shaytaan needed someone to carry out this devilish project and indeed he found some helpers, the magicians of the Pharaoh: Shaytaan's scholars. They are the scholars whom Shaytaan has managed to bring onto his side. He overcame them with their desires and convinced them to twist this Deen in return for a small piece of Dunya; maybe by allowing them to think that they do not need to accept that their friends are not Muslims anymore, hence making life a bit more "tolerable". And how does this help the priests of Shaytaan? Do they perhaps think they can change the reality and the Truth of Islam? It is like it is – whether they like it or not. Do people really think if they convince themselves that the Mushrikoon are definitely Muslims, that those Mushrikoon will then actually become Muslims and enter Paradise – just because they want it to be like this? Why do they simply not accept the truth and try to bring the people into Islam before it is too late for those and for themselves? Shaytaan however, makes them think that they are being merciful towards those "poor" Mushrikeen by letting them think they are also Muslims. A satanic "mercy" is that indeed. The most merciful and compassionate people to their fellow men were surely the Prophets and they said clearly to the Mushrikeen in their faces: "You are not Muslims!" They had indeed mercy with the entire creation and could not bear it that their nations would forever be thrown into Hell, this is the true and sincere mercy. The mercy of the Shaytaan however, tells us: "Let them go to Hell and you also with them! You just have to tell yourself that you and they are all Muslims and then just sell it to them in a realistic way!"

When you, the reader, go out now and say: "Whoever worships anything other than Allah is not a Muslim, in fact he is a Mushrik, whether he commits his Shirk intentionally or unintentionally. Whoever worships anyone besides Allah is a Mushrik, just like those nations which have passed", then the whole world will stand up against you. And this is what happened. The battle has emerged completely but these simple people, who cannot bear it that so many of their friends are not Muslims, and maybe they themselves are also not, have no power to tackle the clear verses of the Qur'an. They are powerless against the clarity of the Qur'an, in fact they are in need of urgent help, they need someone to strengthen them in their old faith, someone who will not disabuse them of their doubts which they have concerning the verses and Ahaadeeth.

Allah says:

{وَأَنْطَلِقَ الْمَلَأُ مِنْهُمْ أَنْ آمْسُوا وَاصْبِرُوا عَلَى آلِهَتِكُمْ إِنَّ هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ يُرَادُ}

"And the leaders among them went about (saying): Go on, and remain constant to your Aalihah (those whom you are worshipping)! For this (what Muhammad is saying) is truly a thing designed (against you)!"

(Saad, 38:6)

Here the priests of the Shaytaan, who have the deadly poison in their possession, enter into their rolls. Now glance into your community and discover how the people are overtaken by this poison. They say exactly that which the Jews and the Christians before them used to say: “We do not contradict our scholars” – and like this did the Jews and the Christians fall into Shirk; they worshipped their scholars and followed them blindly. Listen to the arguments Shaytaan places in the tongues of the people: “Shaykh such and such said... Who are you standing against him? ... There is no one like him under the stars... Just take a look at all that he has done... Look at his worship... Who are your teachers? ... Your teachers are nothing but a piece of dung lying in front of the feet of our overwhelming scholars... We have never heard about you... What is your degree from the university (of Taghoot)? ... It cannot be that Shaykh such and such does not know this... It cannot be that our Shaykh is not a Muslim... Do you declare us to Mushrikeen? ... Do you declare our scholars to Mushrikeen? ... We will beat you... We will kill you... Just look at how many books he has read... Just look at how he fights, look! ... Don't you see his good intention?... Nobody knows it but you know it? ... People say about you this and that... You want to cheat on us... You want to bewitch us... You are insane... Stay away from him, he is a takfeeri, a khaarijyy! ... Cover your ears!” You will come to hear similar statements, we have already heard them or read them.

Allah says:

{ اتَّخَذُوا أَحْبَارَهُمْ وَرُهَبَانَهُمْ أَرْبَابًا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَالْمَسِيحَ ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ وَمَا أُمِرُوا إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُوا إِلَهًا وَاحِدًا
لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ سُبْحَانَهُ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ }

“They (Jews and Christians) took their rabbis and their monks to be their lords besides Allah (by obeying them in things that they made lawful or unlawful according to their own desires without being ordered by Allah), and (they also took as their Lord) Messiah, son of Maryam (Mary), while they were commanded to worship none but One Ilaah: La Ilaaha illa huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He). Glorified is He (far is He) from having the partners they associate (with Him).”

(Surah at-Taubah: 31)

Take a look, may Allah lead you and us all to the Truth – where is the Qur'an and the Sunnah in their arguments, statements and lives? Where? There is no more room for them anymore. Just look at how they worship their scholars. When you go to them with the Qur'an and Sunnah they tell you that their scholars understood this better than you – and for them to say this is enough as a reply for themselves. Why do they then not at least help us understand their views and the views of their scholars, who allow and commit and call to Kufr day and night. If they are so great, so powerful and so knowledgeable, why do they all turn away? In fact, they are the ones who behave like the Khawaarij, who fled from the evidences. One of the most essential signs of the Khawaarij was their ignorance. We ask them: Did the Khawaarij run after the people to show them their evidences, like we are doing? Never. In this point they themselves resemble the Khawaarij, in fact they are even worse in their degree of warding off.

On the contrary, the people of Truth only say – may Allah let you and us be among those – and because I also wish to be among those, I also say: “We follow that which Allah and His Messenger (saw) say, no matter what that means for us. We bring our clear evidences, you bring yours. Whoever is correct – he’s the one we follow! May Allah guide us to the Truth, whether we know it or you. If we are on the wrong path then we beg Allah to lead us to the Right Path. We just want the Truth. We do not act according to Shaykh such and such, our “Shaykh” is Rasulullah.”

May Allah let you and us be of those on whom He will bestow His Mercy, let us die as Muslims in order to escape His terrible punishment and enter His indescribably beautiful Paradise! In reality, it is not necessary to explain to a person with a healthy Fitrah (the natural understanding and disposition with which Allah created us and equipped us with) that as long as a person worships anything other than Allah (swt), he can never be a Muslim. How can it be if Islam means “to worship only Allah alone” and if “Muslim” means “someone who ONLY worships Allah alone”, how can a person then be that “someone” who “only worships Allah alone” and simultaneously worships something other than Allah? How can one stick to the view that this person fulfills the fundamental prerequisites of being a Muslim? The priests of Shaytaan are working to distort the Fitrah of man. The existence of these people has forced us to sit down and explain the obvious – and that is the reason for this book.

He who thinks that a man can be Muslim while he worships something other than Allah, can himself not be a Muslim because he has obviously not understood Islam and he does not know that Islam means that “you do not worship anything except Allah alone”. The following evidences make it clear that Islam is to worship no one except Allah and he who excuses a Mushrik and describes him as a Muslim is consequently himself a Mushrik as well (even if his Shirk is not so evident – what he is considered to be worshipping and why that is so, see “The Rejection of the Taghoot”). It must then be clear that the Bid’ah (innovation in religion) to excuse a Mushrik is a Bid’ah Mukaffira (a type of innovation which is Kufr). In order to avoid any misunderstandings it is worth mentioning here that when the word “Mubtadi’a” (people who commit Bid’ah) however is used, it refers to Muslims. This is because two types of innovation exist, one type which is a major sin if committed and the other due to which one falls into Kufr.

As Al-Fudayl ibnu ‘Iyaad (may Allah be merciful to him) said: “I eat together with a Jew and a Christian but I do not eat together with a Mubtadi’ and I wished between me and the Mubtadi’ were a fortress of iron” (narrated in Sharh us-Sunnah, al-Hassan ibnu Aly Al-Barbahari).

So if one understands that he was referring to the Mubtadi’a from amongst the Muslims, one becomes aware of the significance of the topic dealt with in this book. Note that the Irjaa’ (the astray belief that faith lies only in the heart and deeds have no influence on it) also has different levels. So there are people who practice Irjaa’, the Murji’a, who are Muslims and there are Murji’a who become Kuffaar. This latter type of Irjaa’ is considered as extremism (ghuluw) and the scholars have unanimously agreed that it is an astray path of Kufr.

Those who have gone astray also follow a certain and specific method of dealing with different matters, which causes the problems they have. Their method consists of firstly to think with their minds. Now, their minds are heavily subject to their desires: What should the solution to a matter be according to THEIR opinion and how THEY think it is correct. Only then do they open the Qur'an and Sunnah and try to find anything which supports their Bid'ah (this applies to those ignorant people who think they have found what appears to be proof but in reality they just allowed themselves to be led astray). They then grab their ideas tightly and are not able to let go even when the clear proofs come to them. Eventually they arrive even further on this astray path that they do not even feel the need to open the Qur'an and Sunnah at all, instead they search intensely in the books of the scholars. In those books they "find" even more of what they call "proofs" – this is because scholars are also just human beings and their writings are susceptible in a way that words which they never said and never meant are placed in their mouths.

Therefore, know – may Allah let you and us enter Paradise – that a Muslim is a person who worships Allah alone and a Mushrik is a person who worships something other than Allah or worships something besides Allah. Therefore, a Mushrik can never be a Muslim, whether he knows this or not. A person who leaves Islam due to his Shirk and a person who remains in the boundaries of Islam are both states in which a person is – irrelevant of his acknowledgement – he is in that state. In order to explain and prove this, I have listed clear and irrefutable evidences from the Qur'an and Sunnah.

The importance of this issue will not become clear to anyone as long as he does not know that committing Shirk does not just mean to prostrate before someone else besides Allah, or to pray to him or to bring him a sacrifice. In fact, some of the greatest forms of Shirk consist of obeying someone or following someone who prohibits the allowed and allows the prohibited, or creates laws which are in contradiction to Islam – whether that lawmaker is a ruler or a scholar or whosoever.

Whoever knows this, clearly recognizes without a doubt that from the 1.5 billion people of the so-called Islamic Ummah (nation), the vast majority actually consists of people who worship their political leaders, their scholars, their constitutions, their homeland, their freedom, their intellect, the majority of the people (democracy). By obeying and following these people or objects and accepting and legitimizing them, they fall into the act of worshipping, as Allah has revealed to us clearly in the Qur'an.

In this book however, I have only concentrated on defending the basis of our mighty religion in order to leave no doubt. Therefore, I advise everyone to read this book several times and internalize the evidences provided so that it can lead to an unshakable conviction, like it ought to be for every Muslim. I recommend the reader to refer to two other books which I have written (in the Arabic language), which explain these questions in detail: "Kitab ul-Kufri bit-Taghoot" (The book about Kufr against the Taghoot) and "Shirk ut-tashri' wa t-ta'ati wal-ittiba' min adwa'ailbaiyaan" (The Shirk of legislation, obedience and following from (the Book) Adwa'ulbayaan). These books will soon be available in English, if Allah wills. If necessary I will also explain this book verbally in form of lectures, as long as Allah wills it.

I thank Allah the All-Mighty who helped me with this book and I beg Allah to let my intention be purely for Him alone. Then I thank all those who worked together with me for this edition of the book, its correction and translation.

May Allah lead us to the correct understanding of Islam and to accept it and let us die as Muslims and unite us with the Prophets of Islam (the religion of all Prophets) in His Paradise. AllahUmmah Ameen.

Foreword

All praises are due to Allah for the best of all blessings – and verily, it is the blessing of Islam! May Ar-Rahman guide you and us towards what He is pleased with and may He make us from His righteous servants and let us die as Muslims!

This era is the time of estranging from this Deen; matters and issues of Tawheed are forsaken and unknown and this disgusting Bid'ah lives amongst this Ummah since many centuries. The sick hearts inherit this innovation in religion from generation to generation: to think that a person can be a Muslim and a Mushrik at the same time and worship Allah alone without any partners but at the same time take a partner besides Allah. If a living heart would read this obvious contradiction, it would immediately realize its invalidity and reading the rest which follows in this book would not be necessary anymore.

Nevertheless, people still come along with their doubts and bring along with them their so-called proofs, in order to twist the basis of this Deen, to facilitate and accelerate the confusion among people concerning their Deen and sequentially to take away from them the last bit of their healthy Fitrah which they still possess. It is nothing but a passion to excuse and drag the Kuffaar, the Murtaddeen (former Muslims who have now rejected Islam) and Mushrikeen into the Deen by any means. Thereby, they follow only their desires and their wish to spare themselves from a few problems and to make matters in this Dunya, in this life of theirs, easier.

There is no doubt about the fact that the cursed philosophy and the poison of Irjaa' led to the condition we are currently in, which expanded day by day since its first appearance in the Ummah. As mentioned earlier, it reached a level that people started to defend the Mushrikeen and to consider them as Muslims. Thus, people forgot Islam even though Allah has provided us with an explanation which is complete. Who would think about the All-Wise Lord, the One who explained to the worlds all the good in its details, that He maybe did not explain the root of Islam in a perfect way? So ask yourself, may Allah guide us and you to the understanding of His Book just like He wants it to be understood, and to the understanding of the speech of His Messenger (saw) just like he (saw) wanted it to be understood: Is there any need for the explanation of the true meaning of Islam after the sufficient and curative explanation from the Prophet (saw)? The Prophet (saw) truly said several times: "Islam is that you worship Allah alone without associating anything with Him!" Therefore, the Muslim is the one who worships Allah alone without associating anything with Him. Hence, the Mushrik is the person who associates something with Allah in his worship. What a beautiful explanation from our beloved Prophet (saw), so precise and without leaving any open door for the one who seeks to dispute about it! Despite this fact some people who went far astray still argue about the basis of this Deen. Thus, these ignorant people fabricate lies and cannot wait to feign the knowledge which they do not possess. It is weird that some of them claim their disavowal of Irjaa', while it is actually present in their blood and running through their veins but they somehow do not feel it. So if al-Fudayl ibnu 'Iyaad (may Allah be merciful to him) even said about the Mubtadi'a from amongst the Muslims that he eats together with a Jew and Christian but not a Mubtadi' and he wished between him and a Mubtadi' were a fortress of iron then what about the extremists amongst the Murji'a, those who were considered by the scholars as Kuffaar throughout history? And what about a person who does not know Islam and therefore regards Mushrikeen as Muslims and defends them and becomes their ally? Their going astray and their ignorance is considered even worse.

If you are one of those who want to protect their Deen honestly then you should know that people will never be successful in their Dunya and likewise not in their Aakhirah, so long as they do not have a complete understanding of Tawheed and act according to that knowledge. The more they will act according to Tawheed the more success they will have in their affairs. However, neither will the heart of a Mubtadi' understand this fact, nor the one who does not comprehend the reality of Islam – even if he presumes that he understood it a thousand years ago! This applies to Tawheed in general, how is it then for the basis of Tawheed? The majority of the people have a wrong understanding in relation to this question. So when they hear these statements, they grin or mock at them and say:

{ مَا سَمِعْنَا بِهَذَا فِي آبَائِنَا الْأُولَى... }

"...Never did we hear such a thing (as he says), among our fathers of old."

(Surah al-Mu'minoon: 24)

And they say:

{ مَا سَمِعْنَا بِهَذَا فِي الْمِلَّةِ الْآخِرَةِ إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا اخْتِلَافٌ }

"We have not heard (the like) of this in the religion of our fathers. This is nothing but a made-up tale!"

(Surah Saad: 7)

Truly, Allah will never grant anyone the true victory so long as he does not understand Tawheed completely with his heart and apply it to all matters of his daily life. The true victory and the successful Jihad (the battle to bring victory to Allah's Deen) can never take place except and only after Tawheed has been accomplished.

The one and only source from which a Muslim derives his strength is the knowledge about his Lord and about his Lord's Oneness. A person who does not understand this is a person without any wisdom.

Whoever thinks that his scholars are flawless and that it is not allowed to advise them and to point out to them their errors, then I do not know according to which religion they think to be serving their Lord, definitely however, that is not from Islam.

Many awkward opinions among people have become widespread, for instance, they think that whoever supposes to be knowledgeable (which often represents a ridicule of knowledge) or whoever lifts a weapon must also be rightly guided and faultless – like an angel gliding down from heaven. They support their mischief with a miserable, a Qur’an-misinterpreting argumentation:

{وَالَّذِينَ جَاهَدُوا فِيْنَا لَنَهْدِيَنَّهُمْ سُبُلَنَا وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَمَعَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ}

“And those who strive in Us (Our Cause), We will certainly guide them to Our Paths. And verily Allah is with the Muhsineen (good-doers).”

(Surah al-Ankaboot: 69)

This is no more connected with the love for the scholars and Mujaahideen. It is rather an exaggeration in their love for specific people or to the battle itself or for that which they regard as knowledge. In reality, it is the origin of every Shirk committed, because all Mushrikoon always argue that their Ahbaar and Ruhbaan i.e. their great scholars and worshippers (Ubaad) have said this and that. People think that they cannot make any mistakes due to the immense knowledge they possess and due to their Ibaadah (worship). Truly, as regards worshipping the Ahbaar and Ruhbaan, this Ummah already followed the previous nations in doing that handspan by handspan, cubit by cubit, just like our beloved and trustworthy Prophet (may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) told us that it surely will take place (some of these issues will be discussed in this book).

{اتَّخَذُوا أَحْبَابَهُمْ وَرُهْبَانَهُمْ أَرْبَابًا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَالْمَسِيحَ ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ وَمَا أُمِرُوا إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُوا إِلَهًا وَاحِدًا لَّا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ سُبْحَانَهُ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ}

“They (Jews and Christians) took their rabbis and their monks to be their lords besides Allah (by obeying them in things that they made lawful or unlawful according to their own desires without being ordered by Allah), and (they also took as their Lord) Messiah, son of Maryam (Mary), while they were commanded to worship none but One Ilaah: La Ilaaha illa huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He). Glorified is He (far is He) from having the partners they associate (with Him).”

There are many disgusting versions of how this tendency has been expressed. Finally, if it reaches so far, then it is of no importance what the Qur’an and Sunnah say – the decision of any matter then lies by person X. If alone pointing out an error to those “knowledgeable people” means attacking Allah’s Waliy (ally, friend, helper) then this is the new Sufism. In reality, it is the same old Sufism and the Salaf were free from this attitude. A Muslim must however extremely fear these issues, just like our Salaf (pious predecessors of the first three generations after the Prophet (saw)) did. A Muwahhid comprehends these issues, so be cautious. This Bid’ah is the downfall of Islam and the destruction of Tawheed, no one would despise these matters apart from a person unaware of Tawheed.

Therefore, the most important matter for the Muslims nowadays is to maximize their efforts in learning Tawheed and teaching it to the people and uprooting this ridiculous Bid'ah entirely. If these stray thoughts are not shattered they will return as enormous armies, against which the people will be helpless. To occupy oneself in gaining this knowledge on Tawheed and spreading it are from the greatest forms of pious deeds and Jihad in our days. May Allah protect all the Muslims, not the Mushrikeen, and let the Muslims be victorious over their enemies. Ameen!

Fundamentally, Islam is freeing oneself from Shirk and the people of Shirk. How can Islam be fully accomplished without this deed and how can Islam become apparent without (openly proclaiming) it? This is impossible and so the mightiest tool for the spread of this Deen is the proclamation of completely freeing oneself from the Mushrikeen. This Islam, which most people do not know about today, is simply and nothing more than refraining from Shirk. Even the Mubtadi'a (from among the Muslims) knew this before.

As for describing the Mushrikeen as Muslims and treating them as such in questions of Al-Walaa' and Al-Baraa' (to be loyal [towards Islam] and to be free from [Shirk]), loving and hating for Allah and so on, belongs to the mightiest falsifications of Allah's Deen. To free oneself from them is an obligation but how can someone who regards them as his Muslim brothers free himself from them?

Allah (swt) says in the Qur'an:

{لَا تَجِدُ قَوْمًا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ يُوَادُّونَ مَنْ حَادَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ
وَلَوْ كَانُوا آبَاءَهُمْ أَوْ أَبْنَاءَهُمْ أَوْ إِخْوَانَهُمْ أَوْ عَشِيرَتَهُمْ}

“You will not find any people who believe in Allah and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allah and His Messenger, even though they were their fathers or their sons or their brothers or their kindred.”

(Surah al-Mujaadilah: 22)

This matter is indeed a mighty and dangerous one. Shirk is, and there is a consensus on this by the Prophets (prior to the consensus of the scholars), the opposite of Islam. However, those who consider themselves to be scholars (although they actually do not understand the difference between Islam and Shirk), for them the Mushrik is a Muslim who just sins a little bit – or maybe not even that, since they anyway excuse him. It is as if they are saying: “What is the problem with a little bit of Shirk Akbar (major Shirk)?” La hawla wa la quwwata illa billah!

The correct understanding of this great question solves many serious problems and enlightens the hearts with guidance. The price of its ignorance however is big confusion and dalaal (going astray). And why not? Someone who cannot make a difference between the true meaning of Islam and the true meaning of Shirk, makes errors in the descriptions and laws. Matters remain vague for him: either he calls some Muslims as Mushrikeen and applies on them the laws (of Islam) concerning Mushrikeen or vice versa. So take a look at those people who follow their desires and those among them who consider themselves to be scholars and those who follow them. You will see how they, in their extreme confusion, land from one astray path to the other. There is not a single question which does not become ambiguous for them. So they come with a peculiar understanding, which is more identical to Judaism rather than Islam. At the same time, Allah the Most Merciful, calms down the hearts – with His Mercy – of those who have understood Tawheed from the Qur'an and Sunnah. All praises are only due to Allah alone, the All-Mighty. Oh Lord, let us die as Muslims!

Whoever does not understand the basis of this Deen, for him the Qur'an and the Sunnah and the books of the scholars remain shut. He will not understand it, even if he claims to have taught Tawheed for fifty years. One of the best examples which represents their Jahl (ignorance) and their erroneous understanding of Shaykh ul-Islam Muhammad ibnu Abd il-Wahhab's statements is their spreading of one statement from him in the entire world:

"إِذَا كُنَّا لَا نَكْفُرُ مَنْ يَعْبُدُ قِبَةَ الْكُؤَازِ"

"If we don't declare him who worships the Qubat ul-Kawaz as Kaafir..."

People rejoice upon this statement whereas it is in reality not clear to them what Shaykh ul-Islam Muhammad ibnu Abd il-Wahhab actually wanted to say. He in fact meant that those who worship Qubat ul-Kawaz are indeed Mushrikoon, however not Kuffaar. Those people do not know the Truth yet and therefore they will not be punished until after a trial exclusively for them on the Day of Judgment. They remain for Shaykh ul-Islam as Mushrikoon and are never Muslims. That is why he constantly calls them Mushrikoon. How else could it be when he himself, the other scholars of the Da'wah Najdiyyah and all the other scholars of the Muslims agree upon this matter? What confirms this is a comment made by Shaykh Ishaq ibnu Abd ir-Rahman concerning the ignorant Mushrikeen, where he narrated a statement from Ibn ul-Qayyim: "For him [Ibn ul-Qayyim] they are of the same kind as the people of Fatrah (period between Prophethoods in which the Message was hardly known)", whom the Message of the Prophets did not reach to. The term Islam cannot be applied to both kinds and they cannot be regarded as Muslims. Even those who do not make Takfeer (declare as Kaafir) on some of the Mushrikeen consider them at least as Mushrikeen. The term "Shirk" applies to them and deals with them" (from the book "تَكْفِيرُ الْمُعِينِ وَالْفَرْقِ بَيْنَ قِيَامِ الْحُجَّةِ وَفَهْمِ الْحُجَّةِ", Takfeer ul-Mu'ayyan..., pg. 43, by Ishaq ibn Abd ir-Rahman Aali ash-Shaykh, in his explanation of the "second tahreef". The whole book deals with the rejection of aberrations, fabrications and falsities like these). Note that they are Mushrikoon and not Muslims – even if they are not Kuffaar. The Jahala (ignorant people) do not know this but they think they possess that knowledge. For sure, the combination of ignorance and arrogance causes the Dalaal of those who go astray.

Shaykh Abd ul-Latif, may Allah be merciful to him, says in Minhaj at-Ta'sees (pg. 12): "How many nations perished because of the lack of knowledge and for not knowing the boundaries and the facts? And how many mistakes took place and much grief happened because of this? Now take for instance Islam and Shirk, they are contradictory terms which never unite or lift each other up. The ignorance of both of them or one of them leads many people to fall into Shirk and to worship the righteous people. This is because they do not know the true meanings and cannot imagine them".

In times of ignorance, like nowadays, the most important and valuable deeds are learning and teaching Tawheed. In it lie an enormous grace and the clear victory. So if you wish a mighty reward from your Lord then your Neyyah (intention) should be for Allah alone and you should understand the true basis of Islam and explain it to the people, spread it, protect it and lead it to victory using all the power and wealth which Allah has made available for you. Therein lie the victory of Islam and the Sunnah and the defeat of Shirk and the Bid'ah.

Allah says:

{فَاصْبِرْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَلَا يَسْتَخِفُّكَ الَّذِينَ لَا يُوقِنُونَ}

“So be patient. Verily the Promise of Allah is true; and let not those who have no certainty of Faith discourage you.”

(Surah ar-Rum: 60)

Be aware of this! This is the basis of Deen. If in your life you spend your time working on spreading all this then you will be, in sha Allah, light over light in this world and the next one - according to that which we have understood from those sources in which the immensity and greatness of Tawheed are explained.

He who is acquainted with the Qur'an and Sunnah knows that the number of proofs concerning the basis of Islam is innumerable, however, only for those whom Allah guides to the correct understanding of the Qur'an and Sunnah. I have aimed to mention several of the clearest proofs, even though there are still many more to bring up.

I have explained this question with evidences from the Quran, Sunnah and the consensus (Ijmaa') of the scholars, just like it ought to be in our Deen. It does not however mean that the scholars from whom I have narrated are flawless – whether they belong to the former scholars or latter. I am mentioning this because this Ummah swings from the blind following of one person to the blind following of the other and from exaggeration in love for one Shaykh to the exaggeration in love for the other Shaykh and swings from one edge to the other. Until this Ummah does not refrain from this, the good will never return in it, therefore it is obligatory for us to prevent it. Truly, we take from the scholars only that which is right and the wrong we turn down. We do not prove anything with their statements but we prove the correctness of their statements through the Qur'an and Sunnah.

The first irrefutable evidence

Allah says:

{إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ أَنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ}

“Verily, Allah forgives not (the sin of) setting up partners (in worship) with Him.”

(Surah an-Nisaa': 116)

But they say: "Allah forgives setting up partners with Him!"

So he who claims that a person goes to Paradise despite committing Shirk, rejects this Aayah and claims (even if he is not aware of it): "Verily, Allah forgives setting up partners with Him". There are people who really follow this claim and even pronounce it clearly! And from them there are people who bring forward the narration from Al-Aswad ibnu Sari' as a proof: "...Therefore, the ignorant Mushrik (the one who is in a state of ignorance of the guidance from Allah because the evidence did not reach him) will be tested on the Day of Resurrection. And after the trial he will enter Paradise as a Muslim soul." If he really should come up with this statement then he definitely brought forward the best proof against his own self. This is so because he acknowledged that he who is tested cannot be a Muslim until he passes the trial. Hence, there is no doubt that he is a Mushrik regarding his condition before the trial.

If those who have not given much thought to this statement claim that the Shirk of a person will be forgiven as well by Allah after the trial (attempting to claim that this is contradictory to the evidence we brought from the Qur'an above), to them I reply: No way! This Jaahil (i.e. the ignorant Mushrik) was not even mukallaf (obligated and responsible) while in the world (that means that he was one of those who were not put on trial in this world). The laws of obligations and prohibitions are only valid after Qiyaam ul-Hujjah (obtaining knowledge). Therefore, he is considered as one who has not committed any sins and will also not be exposed to any punishment – for this there is a consensus (Ijmaa'). So he, for whom Tawheed was not made obligatory and Shirk not prohibited, is not called a sinner and he has no sins which need to be forgiven – nothing was made obligatory for him and nothing was prohibited for him. Upon this the Ahl ul-Sunnah wal-Jama'a are in agreement.

The second irrefutable evidence

The Muslim will not be tested on the Day of Judgment according to the Ijmaa'. So he, who is put on trial cannot be a Muslim.

Imaam Ahmad narrates in his Musnad from Al-Aswad ibnu Sari' that the Prophet (saw) said: "There will be four people on the Day of Judgment: A deaf one who cannot hear anything, one who is mentally disabled, one who is old and one who died in the time of Fatrah. The deaf one will say: "Oh my Lord, Islam came but I could not hear anything!" The mentally disabled one will say: "Oh my Lord, Islam came and the kids were throwing dung at me!" The old one will say: "Oh my Lord, Islam came but I did not understand!" And the one who died in the time of Fatrah will say: "Oh my Lord, none of your Prophets came to me!" Thereupon Allah will take a covenant from them saying that they have to obey him. Then Allah will then let a message come to them: "Enter the fire". The Prophet said: "I swear by the one in Who's Hand the soul of Muhammad is, if they would enter this fire it would be cool and comfortable for them!" Abu Hurairah narrated the same Hadeeth with the following addition: "Whoever enters it, it will be cool and comfortable for him, and whoever refuses to enter will be dragged into it (into the real Fire)!"

Ibn ul-Qayyim mentioned the transmission paths of this Hadeeth in his book "Ahkaam Ahl ul-Dhimmah" (volume 2, pg.650), and after mentioning them he said: "They (the transmission paths) strengthen one another and the scholars of Hadeeth confirmed some of them as saheeh, such as Al-Bayhaqi and Abd ul-Haqq and others too confirmed the Hadeeth from Al-Aswad and Abu Abu Hurairah. Moreover, the A'immah (pl. of imaam) of Islam narrated them and wrote them down in their books.” In the same book, Ibn ul-Qayyim, may Allah have mercy upon him, mentions twenty points refuting the claim of those who deny this trial. And what he said is the truth to which the texts from the Qur’an and the Sunnah point out, and Allah knows best!

Among the scholars there is a difference in opinion concerning this trial. The difference in opinion however, does not bother us in any way because those scholars who deny this trial generally say that there is no Mushrik who will be excused (due to his ignorance) and that all the Mushrikeen received the evidence. In their view anyone who dies in the state of Shirk will definitely dwell in Hellfire forever. So it is clear that there is no hint whatsoever in any of the two scholarly opinions, which supports the opinion of those who declare the Mushrikeen as Muslims. Indeed both of the opinions – by the Grace of Allah – are plain and crushing evidences. Once again it has been made apparent that the scholars are in agreement (Ijmaa’) in this matter, that whoever worships anything other than Allah is certainly no Muslim but he is a Mushrik; some say that whoever worships anything other than Allah enters Hellfire directly, and others say that if he is an ignorant Mushrik he will be first tested on the Day of Judgment. All of them say that he is a Mushrik and that a Muslim will anyway not be tested according to the Ijmaa’.

The third irrefutable evidence

Only a Muslim soul enters Paradise.

Bukhary narrates in his saheeh from Abu Hurairah and the same from Abdullah Ibn Mas’ood in another Hadeeth that the Prophet (saw) said: “For none will enter paradise but a Muslim soul”.

The Mushrik then therefore never enters Paradise except by becoming a Muslim through a trial which he will receive on the Day of Judgment, but in the Dunya he was a Mushrik, upon this there is no doubt.

The fourth irrefutable evidence

Every matter has a basis. How can one ever be a Muslim if he has not realized the basis of Islam?

Bukhary narrates from Ibnu ‘Umar (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said: “Islam is built upon five [pillars]: the testimony that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah; establishing regular prayer (salaah); paying the Zakaah (poor-due, obligation on Muslims to pay a certain amount from their wealth); Hajj (pilgrimage) and fasting Ramadaan.” And in a different narration: “Islam is built upon five [pillars]: “Imaan (faith) in Allah and His Messenger (saw), upon the five prayers, ...”. In another narration from Muslim: “...to carry into effect the Oneness of Allah (...على أن يوحد الله...)”, and in another narration from him: “...that Allah has to be worshipped and that everything besides Him must be rejected (..على أن يُعبد الله ويُكفّر بما دونه..).”

This is the basis of Islam, upon which our Deen is built, upon this there is a consensus (Ijmaa'). Very well then! Which house remains intact after its foundation is gone?

Abd ul-Latif and Ishaq, the sons of Abd ur-Rahman Aali ash-Shaykh and Ibnu Sahman narrate from Ibn ul-Qayyim: “There is a consensus concerning the people of Fatrah and those whom the call did not reach to that they cannot be judged as Muslims and they do not come under the category of people who are allowed to be called Muslims, not even for those who do not make Takfeer on some of them. The term “Shirk” must be applied on them however and its meaning deals with them. Now then, which Islam remains after its basis and its mightiest foundation are disrupted which is: “لا إله إلا الله” - There is no one to be worshipped except Allah” (from Takfeer ul-Mu'ayyan... p. 43 by Ishaq ibn Abd ir-Rahman Aali ash-Shaykh).

The fifth irrefutable evidence

In this Deen legal terms (al-Asmaa' ash-Shar'iyyah) are used for a person when they apply to him. A person will be called according to the deed which he does - by consensus, rationally, linguistically in all languages and according to the law of Islam. This is clear to everyone and also comprehensible.

Hence, he who drinks will be called drinker, he who commits adultery will be called adulterer. He who worships something other than Allah will be called “worshipper of something other than Allah” (these expressions have been chosen in order to bring the reader closer to the meaning of these words in Arabic). Thus, he who commits Shirk will be called Mushrik and he who commits Kufr will be called Kaafir. One should not become puzzled concerning the matter of “Takfeer”. It is only possible to call someone a Kaafir after he has received the Message – upon this the Ahl us-Sunnah wal-Jama'a are in agreement. Kufr is only then committed after a person receives the Message and the evidences and he is no more ignorant of the Truth and then he turns away from it or declares it to be a lie, and so on. On the contrary, Shirk is a state in which a person is – irrelevant whether or not he has received Allah's (swt) Message.

Hence, one must differentiate between Shirk and Kufr. The term “Mushrik” can also be applied to a person before he receives the Message and the laws of Islam will be applied to him according to this state of his, for instance the prohibition to marry him. However, the laws concerning fighting, killing and punishing are not applied to him in this world and the Hereafter. These laws (for example to fight the Mushrikeen) are only then relevant once he receives the Message, turns away from it and hence becomes a Kaafir. The Muslim who commits Shirk leaves Islam thereby: he has committed apostasy – whether he did this out of ignorance or incorrect interpretation of the evidences<sup>1</sup>. However, to describe him as a Kaafir or to execute him and so on, before he receives the evidences, is not permitted.

Ibnu Taymiyya said in the chapter: “As regards legal terms and rulings, Allah separated between some of them and united some of them concerning what was before the Risaalah (before the receiving of the Message) and that which was after it. Therefore, the term “Mushrik” is applied to a person before he receives the Message (and before a Prophet comes to him) because he is already worshipping something besides Allah and equalizing something with Him and taking for worship gods other than Him. So these terms exist before the coming of a Prophet. Just like the term “Jahl” (ignorance) and “Jaahiliyya” (time of ignorance). The terms “Jaahiliyya” and “Jaahil” (the ignorant person) are used even before the arrival of a Prophet but there exists no punishment (for being a “Jaahil”).” (Majmu’ ul-Fataawa 20/37)

May Allah guide us to the Truth – note how Shaykh ul-Islam Ibnu Taymiyya describes the requirement needed to call someone Mushrik. Note how he uses the Arabic term “كافر” for emphasis and confirms the matter thereby. It is obvious from his statement that for him if a person commits “Shirk Akbar” (major Shirk that brings someone out of the fold of Islam) he is a Mushrik and can certainly not be a Muslim. This is actually contrary to the lies which people fabricated against him concerning his opinion in this matter.

The application of the terms Shirk and Kufr and the explanation of the two opinions on them

Ibnu Hazm said in his book Al-Fisal concerning the judgment of Kufr and Shirk:

“...and other people said that Kufr and Shirk are the same. So every Kaafir is also a Mushrik and every Mushrik is also a Kaafir. This is the opinion of Shaafi’y.”

Those who went astray play and fool around with this statement of Ibnu Hazm. So they come and say that every Shirk and Kufr could be excused because of ignorance, and because of that ignorance a person stays within the boundaries of Islam. No doubt, no one would come up with such a generalization (which is Kufr) except he who is a Mushrik himself and absolutely clueless about Islam. Is it really imaginable that a person who claims that ar-Rahman begot a child is a Muslim or a person worshipping a cow is a Muslim just because he associates himself with Islam? No one would say such a thing except he who is a Mushrik himself and unaware of the meaning of Islam. Did Ibnu Hazm really intend to imply what they say about him? Far from it! Ibnu Hazm, just like all other recognized scholars were in agreement that a person who attributes others in worship besides Allah can never be a Muslim, one who worships only Allah alone. The distinction between the descriptions of the terms “Kufr” and “Shirk” is exclusively a question of description (i.e. nomenclature, naming and symbolizing). It has no influence whatsoever on the mentioned consensus of the scholars as will be explained below.

<sup>1</sup> Translator’s note: If he did this out of ignorance, then in reality he was never a Muslim but it was just never apparent because his Shirk was not visible until then. He was actually a Mushrik, even if he was considered a Muslim according to the laws which we are given. As soon as a person’s Shirk becomes apparent, he must be treated like a Mushrik without hesitation. Many people do not pay attention to that which causes them several problems. Thorough explanation of this will follow.

Amongst the scholars were those who called the ignorant Mushrik (the one who did not receive the evidence) a “Mushrik” without calling him a “Kaafir”. As a reason for that they stated that the action of Kufr is not possible except after the coming of a Messenger or his Message and in sha Allah it will become even clearer. Due to the same reason they call the Mushrik who received the evidence a “Mushrik Kaafir”. This form is used very often by the Da'wah Najdiyyah. Amongst them were also those who called the ignorant Mushrik a “Kaafir – committing Kufr which he will not be punished for”. As to the Mushrik who received the evidence they called him a “Kaafir – committing Kufr which he will be punished for”. One can find that in the books of Ibnu Taymiyya as well as in other books.

Therefore, if you find one of the old scholars saying that “Kufr and Shirk are the same”, it means either of two:

1. They describe everybody as a “Kaafir” – those, who are in the state of Shirk before receiving the evidence and those who still stick to their Shirk after receiving the evidence. They do not make a difference between them concerning the way they describe them (while they do differentiate between their dissimilar realities).
2. They deny the existence of a trial on the Day of Judgement, therefore for them every Mushrik is a Kaafir, and in their point of view anyone who died in the state of Shirk goes directly to Hellfire.

However, by all these scholars there exist only two groups of people: either Muslim or Mushrik! No third group! So how could Ibnu Hazm possibly have said what they accuse him falsely of while he explained the meaning of Islam and its requirements with the clearest explanation? Are they really saying that the A'immah of Islam did not know what Islam means? And that they claimed that he who worships a cow or a dead person or al-Laat, al-'Uzza and Manaat (idols from the pre-Islamic period), could perhaps be an ignorant Muslim? What a great lie! So come and take a look at what Ibnu Hazm said in his book Al-Fisal:

وقال تعالى "فَإِنْ تَابُوا" يعني من الشرك "وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتَوُا الزَّكَاةَ فَإِخْوَانُكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ" وهذا نص جلي على أن من صلى من أهل شهادة الإسلام وزكى فهو أخونا في الدين ولم يقل تعالى ما لم يأت بكبيرة فصح أنه مِنَّا وإن أتى بالكبائر (الفصل: في آخر فَصْل "الكلام في تسمية المؤمن بالمسلم والمسلم بالمؤمن وهل الإيمان والإسلام اسمان...")

“And Allah says: But if they repent (meaning from Shirk), establish regular prayers and give the Zakaah, they are your brethren in Faith. This is a clear text which indicates that he who performs the prayer from amongst the people of the Islamic Shahaadah and gives the Zakaah, joins our Deen as our brother. And since Allah the Exalted did not say: “As long as they do not commit major sins they are your brothers” it is clear that he is our brother even if he commits major sins (Kabaa'ir). ”

Notice how Ibnu Hazm is in conformity with the consensus of all scholars, especially with the scholars of Tafseer: It is not obligatory that a person is free from major sins so that his Islam is right, he must merely be free from Shirk.

He says further:

"وقال سائر أهل الإسلام كل من اعتقد بقلبه اعتقادا لا يشك فيه وقال بلسانه لا إله إلا الله وأن محمدا رسول الله وأن كل ما جاء به حق وبرئ من كل دين سوى دين محمد صلى الله عليه وسلم فإنه مسلم مؤمن." (4:35)

"And all other Muslims say (in contrary to those Mu'tazilah who have gone astray [to which Ibnu Hazm just responded above] who say, "he who hasn't recognized the Truth by the laws of philosophy is not a Muslim" [may Allah protect us from such a Kufr): "He who is convinced with his heart and without any doubt whatsoever and says with his tongue: "There is none worthy of worship except Allah and Muhammad is His Messenger" and that all what he (saw) came with is the Truth and frees himself from every Deen except the Deen of Muhammad, verily he is truly a Muslim Mu'min."

Just take a look at how he narrates the agreement concerning the well known conditions for the rightness of Islam and how he lists them. He knows precisely that a person can never be a Muslim as long as he does not know and is not completely convinced that none is allowed to be worshipped other than Allah. So how can a person be a Muslim if he worships something other than Allah, acknowledging that Ibnu Hazm explains that every Islam is impossible by the mere ignorance of this matter (since he and as well as the consensus of all scholars, makes this knowledge a requirement for Islam). So how can the ignorance of a Mushrik suddenly make out of him a Muslim who is excused, whereas he cannot even be a Muslim without this mere knowledge?

One must additionally reject every Deen other than Islam and practice al-Kufr bit-Taghoot (rejecting and denying anything and anyone which is worshipped other than Allah). How can one reject the Deen of the Mushrikeen when his actions (of Shirk) are actually exactly the same as theirs? How can one make Kufr with at-Taghoot (reject him) and not worship it while he is worshipping it at same time? Is there a bigger contradiction than knowing that?

Ibnu Hazm says further:

لا خلاف بيننا وبينهم ولا بين أحد من الأمة في أن من كفر بالطاغوت وآمن بالله واستمسك بالعروة الوثقى التي لا انفصام لها فإنه مؤمن مسلم (الفصل: قبيل النقل الأول, ومثل ذلك مما يبين فهم ابن حزم للإسلام كثير في هذا الكتاب وغيره)

"There is no difference in opinion between us and them and anyone from the (Islamic) Ummah in this that whoever makes Kufr with the Taghoot and believes in Allah, and grasps the most trustworthy handhold (i.e. Islam) that will never break, then he is indeed a Mu'min Muslim."

Ibnu Hazm has even mentioned the Ijmaa' here, so how can it be possible that he is unaware of these issues as people have placed in his mouth? In this manner they portray statements which they tear out of the context and hence try to twist the Deen of people who do not have knowledge – those who build their religion upon the statements of other people whosoever (they are thereby in reality worshipping those men by obeying them in what they permit from the prohibited). If they only would have placed his unclear statements and his clear statements side by side, they would have indeed solved all contradictions. What can one expect from people who did not do this concerning the Word of Allah – the Qur’an? The method according to which they act have been exposed with the help of the crushing evidences from the Qur’an and Sunnah; one understands easily what Ibnu Hazm meant when he explained the matter of being excused due to ignorance. He said thereupon:

"وهذا هو الحكم الجاري في جميع الديانة." (الإحكام 2:112)

“That is the law which is applied in the entire Religion.” (Al-Ihkaam: 2:112). This Imaam definitely had more knowledge than to be among those who think that one who worships a cow by mistake (ignorantly thinking that it is correct) can be an excused Muslim – the Mushrik indeed does not find himself anywhere at all in the “entire Religion”. One who knows Ibnu Hazm and especially his definition of Islam, he also knows this delusion very well. What an evil distortion and what an evil deceit. He said as well: “In all the issues for which we said that he who commits them after receiving the Message [concerning those matters] is a Faasiq [sinner, evildoer] or Kaafir, and the one who the Message did not reach to is considered as excused and rewarded. Even if he does a mistake” (1:71). So return to his clear statements about Islam (which were partially mentioned above) then you will realize that which people say about him is purely slander.

Wallahi (by Allah)! Ibnu Hazm wrote with the sword, if he would have heard someone calling a person who worships something besides Allah a Muslim, I think he would have ordered him to repent from his Kufr.

The sixth irrefutable evidence:

Islam and Shirk, in their true meanings, are complete opposites.

Their meanings are explained absolutely clearly in the Qur’an and Sunnah – about this there is a consensus. So he who commits Shirk does not fulfill the basis of Islam. How can one still declare him as a Muslim? One is either Muslim or Mushrik, a third group does not exist!

Islam means, in the consensus of the scholars of language and Tafseer and all other scholars “to completely submit oneself under the Will of Allah”, so including the humility, submission and obedience. Allah (swt) says:

{بَلَىٰ مَنْ أَسْلَمَ وَجْهَهُ لِلَّهِ وَهُوَ مُحْسِنٌ فَلَهُ أَجْرُهُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِ وَلَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُونَ}

“Yes, but whoever submits his face (whole self) to Allah (performs his deeds free from Shirk, purely for Allah) and he is a Muhsin (is a doer of good) then his reward is with his Lord (Allah), on such shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve.”

(Surah al-Baqarah: 112)

At-Tabary narrates from some of the Salaf as follows: “That they said, “He who submits his whole self to Allah” means “Akhlasa lillah” (that he does it purely for Allah alone, free from Shirk, submitting himself only to Allah).” He said further: “Like Zaid ibnu Amr ibn un-Nufail also said: “I have surrendered my face (my whole self) to Him (purified it completely from all other), to Whom the clouds carrying pure water also surrendered.” Meaning here, “I have submitted myself to His obedience, to Whose obedience the clouds have also submitted and Whose orders they follow.” In this Aayah Allah (swt) mentions those who submit their faces alone to Allah. Mentioning the face here has been given preference to over the rest of the body because the most precious, important and worth protecting part of the body is the face. When a person submits his face, his most precious part of the body, to something or someone then the rest of the body naturally follows in submission. For the Arabs it was logical (linguistically) that when they mentioned the face it meant the body as a whole. So the Aayah means “Nay, whoever obeys and worships Allah purely (free from Shirk) for Allah alone and carries it out in the best manner...” As also stated and thoroughly explained by Ibnu Katheer.

Hence, Islam means, in the consensus, to surrender in worshipping Allah alone with submission without associating anything with Him. Whosoever does not do this can never be a Muslim, upon this they are all in agreement. And how else can it be? Let us demonstrate this by means of an example: A man never rides a horse, instead always walks by foot and he also never did ride, how could a rational and reasonable thinking person call him an equestrian (one who rides a horse)? Similarly, a person who never submitted himself to Allah alone, and attributed others to Him, someone who never worshipped Him sincerely and still does not do it, such a person cannot be described as a Muslim. He does not possess the characteristics required in Islam which would make him to a Muslim and his deeds are not according to the deeds of a Muslim. No one who has a common sense would define him as a Muslim.

Ibnu Taymiyya, may Allah be merciful to him, says in Majmu' ul-Fataawa 14:282, 284: “And so anyone who does not worship Allah, must undoubtedly be worshipping something other than Him; he worships someone other than Him and is therefore a Mushrik. Among the sons of Adam there is no third part. There is only Muwahhid and Mushrik or those who combine both parts like the distorters of the followers of different religions and the Christians and those who have gone astray who consider themselves to be within Islam”. He who reflects over this passage, will find that Shaykh ul-Islam says five times, each time in a different way that someone who commits Shirk can never be a Muslim. Is there something clearer than that? Therefore, explain all the unclear statements (mutashaabih) from Shaykh ul-Islam with this clear, plain and excellent statement and do not act like the people of perversity!

Shaykh Abd ur-Rahman says in his work “Explanation of the principle of Islam and its most important pillar” and Abd ul-Latif says in Minhaaj (pg. 12): “He who commits Shirk, leaves Tawheed for they are two opposites which never come together and can never cancel each other out.” When Islam departs, Shirk must take its place whereas it is irrelevant why Islam departed. And who does not know this, has not understood Islam.

Further statements from Shaykh ul-Islam Ibnu Taymiyya:

This chapter simply serves as a confirmation of that which has already been said. What has been mentioned is entirely clear, it is not possible to add more to make it clearer. It is rather a chapter to refute the astray beliefs which have become widespread concerning Shaykh ul-Islam Ibnu Taymiyya. What is narrated in the Qur'an, Sunnah and the consensus is sufficient as evidence. However, he who is only reassured with the evidences of Qur'an and Sunnah when he sees that Ibnu Taymiyya also confirms these, for such a person we can just plead for Allah's Guidance.

Know, that the great scholars like Shaykh ul-Islam Ibnu Taymiyya, Ibn ul-Qayyim, Muhammad Ibnu Abd il-Wahhab and the scholars of the Da'wah Najdiyyah, whenever they said, "We don't make Takfeer on this Mushrik because the Message has not reached him", they did not mean he is a Muslim; they simply meant thereby that he is indeed a Mushrik but does not commit Kufr due to which he may be punished, the Message has just not reached him. This is known to everyone who knows their books – may Allah be merciful to them!

They are in agreement upon this matter, namely that everyone who worships anything other than Allah is with surety a Mushrik and cannot be a Muslim. You have to understand this correctly, because he who understands this fact, gains the key to the locks – which remain locked for the Juhaal (ignorant people) – of the statements from these scholars.

There follow some extracts from the statements of Shaykh ul-Islam for further confirmation, even though it is unnecessary to mention them once the evidences from the Qur'an and Sunnah have been mentioned.

Ibnu Taymiyya says in Majmu' ul-Fataawa: "The servant is obliged to worship Allah, offering Him sincere devotion as well as his obligation to call upon Him with sincere devotion. This obligation is not cancelled out in any situation. Only the people of Tawheed will enter Paradise and they are the people of la Ilaaha illa Allah. This is Allah's Right over his servants... They will surely not escape Allah's Punishment, except if they worship Allah alone and only call upon Him with sincere devotion. And who does not attribute others besides Allah and at the same time also does not worship Him, leaves the worship completely – like Pharaoh and his likes. They are even worse than the Mushrikeen. So it is definitely obligatory for every person to worship Allah alone, always and in every situation. So this is Islam in general, apart from which there is no other Deen which Allah accepts. Allah however, does not punish anyone before He sends a Prophet to him, just like He only allows the Muslim soul of a Mu'min to enter Paradise. No Mushrik and no arrogant man who hesitated to worship Allah will enter it. Those who the Da'wah (call) did not reach to in the Dunya, they will be exposed to a trial on the Day of Judgment and no one will enter the Fire except those who followed Shaytaan. He who did not commit any sins, will not enter the Fire and likewise Allah will not punish anyone with the Fire until He has sent a Prophet to him. Those to whom the Message did not reach, such as the children, the mentally ill and those who died in the times of Fatrah, they will be tested in the Hereafter just as we know from the narrations" (pg. 14, 477).

And he also says: "Chapter: The Shaytaan often appears in the form of someone to whom invocations are made (instead of Allah, in matters in which only Allah can help). Usually this person is already dead. Sometimes it also occurs that he appears in the form of a living person, without this person realizing those who are calling upon him. It is the Shaytaan who has taken up this person's shape in order to make the deluded Mushrik, who is calling upon him for help (instead of Allah) to think that this person answered him personally while in reality it was Shaytaan. This happens to the Kuffaar who call upon the people for help, whether dead or living – those whom they think are capable of doing this, for instance, the Christians who call upon their saints. It also happens to the people of Shirk and Error, who consider themselves to be within Islam and call upon the living and dead (instead of Allah) for help. The Shaytaan appears to them in the form of a person whom they call upon for help. This person however, does not know anything about that... Like this, many people have told me that they called upon me for help (istighaatha). Each one of them informed me of a different incident. I told them all that I did not respond to any of them and do not know of any such occurrence. They replied: “Maybe it was an angel who helped us.” So I told them: “The angels don’t help the Mushrikeen...”

(Majmu’ ul-Fataawa, pg. 19, 47/48)

The seventh irrefutable evidence

The Mushrik surely does not fulfill the condition of knowledge from the conditions of la Ilaaha illa Allah concerning which all scholars are in agreement. How can he then be Muslim?

All scholars are in agreement that a person can only then be a Muslim when he fulfills the condition of knowledge:

{فَاعْلَمْ أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ}

“Know, therefore, that there is no Ilaah but Allah.”

(Surah Muhammad: 19)

It is not possible that someone who worships anything other than Allah, does this without perceiving in it godly attributes. At least we can say that he definitely thinks it deserves to be worshipped. However, if he in reality does not think like this, then he can anyway not be an ignorant Mushrik but rather he is a Mushrik who is consciously negligent and therefore a Kafir because the Message has reached him and he knows it is wrong to worship something other than Allah (swt) and no other deserves to be worshipped except Allah (swt) but regardless of this knowledge he worships something else.

An example was provided to us by a person who went astray concerning this matter, he described a possible situation. This example ultimately proved the exact opposite of what he tried to convey – apart from the fact that the example given by him was and is anyway very unlikely to occur. It goes as follows, he said:

“How would it be if a man would live in a secluded village, separated from civilization and sorrow befalls him. He turns for help to the only Shaykh in the village – a Sufi Shaykh. The man has only heard well of this Shaykh and all the people confirm that he is a knowledgeable man. It is not possible for this man to travel in order to hear the opinions of other scholars. The Message has not reached this man and he has no opportunity to obtain the Truth. So this man goes to the Shaykh to ask him what he should do. The Shaykh replies: “The Prophet (saw) says in an authentically narrated saheeh Hadeeth with a golden narration-chain (as he claims): If the breast feels tight, then calling upon the dwellers of the graves is right” (the well-known, cursed and false “Hadeeth”).” Thereupon the man goes and does what he is advised to do and commits thereby Shirk.”

And he continues: “So one can say that this man wanted nothing else but to obey Allah and His Prophet and to do that which the Prophet (saw) instructed him to do.”

So we say: “This man (given in the example) surely does not know the meaning of La Ilaaha illa Allah. He does not know that he is only allowed to worship Allah alone and it is not allowed to attribute anything or anyone with Allah in any situation whatsoever. Even more, that man thinks that the dead can benefit him and harm him and has the ability to relieve him from his problems”.

If the people who raise such Shubuhaat (spurious and erroneous arguments, fallacies) would only reflect upon the question concerning the basis of this Deen, without at the same time following their own desires to make the Mushrikeen into submissive Muslims and also treating them as such – if they would only once think about this seriously, the matter would become clear to them at once.

They but follow their vain desires and therefore they do not want to and cannot practice the correct Aqeedah. Now when they discover what the Salaf really said, they try day and night to twist their words. It is easy to talk about Kufr and Riddah (apostasy) as long as it concerns only one person, namely the ruler. So we ask them: “Why do you really hate this person [the ruler]? Do you hate him because he has committed apostasy with Islam and calls to worship himself? Or do you hate him because he treated you unjustly (as well)? Your deeds imply the latter.” When they realize that their own friends and relatives and many from their nation have fallen into the worst forms of Shirk, Kufr and Riddah, they attempt to twist the basis of this Deen. Within the blink of an eye, they perceive everyone who tries to live according to the Aqeedah of the Salaf as a dog from the dogs of Hell and an extreme Takfeeryy.

That man who invoked to the dead for help, he could have impossibly been a Muslim if he believed that which he was “advised” by the “shaykh”. A Muslim however, who has understood the basis of this Deen that there is none worthy of worship besides Allah and then hears this Hadeeth mentioned above, for him it is immediately clear and logical that this Hadeeth must be a false one. It obviously contradicts the basis of Islam, which will not change until the end of time.

This does not mean that if a person who does not know anything concerning one specific form of Ibaada (worship) from all the forms which exist, that he cannot be a Muslim. Maybe he is even unfamiliar with a lot of it. However, whosoever does not know about the main principle, namely that everything which Allah has ordered mankind to do ought to be done by seeking only His favor and not others, such a person cannot be a Muslim. It is for instance not a serious matter if someone does not know that there is the Ibaada of al-Nadhr (the act of obliging oneself to do something good that is not obligatory). On the other hand, if he sees that people are performing this worship for other than Allah (swt) then he must reject and rebuke it immediately. If he does not but instead also begins to imitate them in this act then he is a Mushrik and a Kaafir according to the consensus of the scholars – because he has received the Message that one is not allowed to worship anything or anyone other than Allah (swt).

Shaykh Abu Maryam said in his comment on this topic: “So one must make a difference between the ignorance of one “form of worship” and “performing that worship for other than Allah”. The ignorance concerning a form of worship comes under the ignorance of some information (from the Deen). The ‘Ibadaat (types of worship) are always connected to their corresponding reports and narrations in the Sharee’ah. Thus, it is not allowed to call something ‘Ibaada without it being mentioned in the Qur’an and Sunnah. For instance, if somebody does not know about the obligation of prayer because he lives in a village isolated from civilization or he is new in Islam, such a person does not commit Kufr if he does not pray as long as the evidence concerning the obligation of prayer is not brought to him. If after that he still insists on neglecting the prayer, he becomes a Kaafir. Alcohol, for example, was allowed until Allah prohibited it, likewise a Muslim who is living in a village which lies far remote from civilization or he is new in Islam and does not know anything about the prohibition of alcohol and continues drinking it, believing that it is permitted and that Allah did not send anything concerning its prohibition. He undoubtedly does not commit Kufr. However, if the message and evidence regarding its prohibition reaches him and he still insists that it is allowed, then he will become a Kaafir according to the consensus of the scholars.”

Shaykh Abu Maryam continues: “If someone associating himself with Islam worships someone other than Allah by calling upon someone other than Allah or supplicates to someone other than Allah for help (in a matter which only Allah alone can help) then this person has equated someone else with Allah in his worship. One cannot say he is a Jaahil and at the same time excused because he did not know that Allah alone deserved to be worshipped. Thus he is a Mushrik – this is the true meaning of Shirk. No one enters Islam before he does not know that worship is only due to Allah alone. If a person assumes that one can utter the Shahaadah and at the same time continue to worship someone other than Allah (swt), then he is a person who does not know that only Allah alone has this right to be worshipped. This person cannot, according to the definition, be a Muslim.

If at the time of the Prophet (saw) one of the Mushrikeen from the Arabs would take up Islam and associate himself with it, but however continue to worship Al-Laat, Al-’Uzza and Manaah, would the Muslims of then say he is a Muslim? Islam exists only then, when a person knows that only Allah alone has the right to be worshipped and that one must reject the Taghoot.”

Shaykh Abu Maryam says finally: “It may occur that people enter Islam and outwardly nothing seems to suggest that their utterance of la Ilaaha illa Allah (in its true meaning) may have been nullified. Inwardly however, they do not know the meaning of the Shahaadah. Regarding such people we judge according to what is apparent, namely that they are Muslims. This is done until we see something from them which shows us that they have not understood la Ilaaha illa Allah.”

The eighth irrefutable evidence:

A Mushrik surely does not fulfill the condition of Ikhlaas (sincerity and honesty) from the conditions of la Ilaaha illa Allah, upon which all scholars are in agreement. So how can he be a Muslim?

This point has already been explained in point six above. I mention it here again separately due to its significance. He who does not perform his worship completely surrendering himself only to Allah (swt), offering Him sincere devotion (Ikhlaas), he violates the Shahaadah entirely and can never be a Muslim. This is also from the mightiest evidences for the basis of this Deen because the agreement of the scholars exists that the Islam of a person is not accepted as long as he is committing Shirk.

Allah says:

{فَإِنْ تَابُوا وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتَوُا الزَّكَاةَ فَإِخْوَانُكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ وَتُفَصِّلُ الْآيَاتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَعْلَمُونَ}

“But if they make Taubah (repent) then, perform the prayer and give Zakaah, then they are your brethren in Deen and we explain the Aayaat in detail for a people who know.”

(Surah at-Taubah: 11)

Al-Qurtuby says: “(If they then make Taubah) – meaning Taubah from Shirk.” Upon this all the scholars of Tafseer (explanation) and all A’immah are in agreement.

Allah says:

{إِلَّا الَّذِينَ تَابُوا وَأَصْلَحُوا وَاعْتَصَمُوا بِاللَّهِ وَأَخْلَصُوا دِينَهُمْ لِلَّهِ فَأُولَئِكَ مَعَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ
وَسَوْفَ يُؤْتِي اللَّهُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَجْرًا عَظِيمًا}

"Except those who repent, correct it, hold fast to Allah and purify their Deen (from Shirk) for Allah, then they will be with the Mu'mineen. And Allah will grant the Mu'mineen a great reward."

(Surah an-Nisaa': 146)

Shaykh ul-Islam, may Allah be merciful to him, says: “To serve Allah with Ikhlaas (offering Him sincere devotion implies purging one’s soul of non-Islamic beliefs), is the one and only Religion which Allah accepts. For the spread of this Deen he sent all the Prophets and revealed all the Books. The great scholars amongst the people of Imaan have agreed upon this. This is the essence of the call of all Prophets and the axis of the Qur’an around which everything rotates. Allah (swt) says in the Qur’an:

{تَنْزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ (*) إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ بِالْحَقِّ فَاعْبُدِ اللَّهَ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ الدِّينَ (*) أَلَا لِلَّهِ الدِّينُ الْخَالِصُ}

“The revelation of this Book is from Allah, the All-Mighty, the All-Wise. Verily, we have sent down the Book to you in Truth. So, worship Allah sincerely for His sake only. Surely, the pure Deen (ad-Deen ul-Khaalis [from Shirk]) is for Allah only.”

(Surah az-Zumar: 1-3)

Shaykh ul-Islam continues: “Surah az-Zumar as a whole deals with this matter. Just like the following verse also from the same chapter:

{ قُلْ إِنِّي أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ اللَّهَ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ الدِّينَ (*) وَأُمِرْتُ لِأَنْ أَكُونَ أَوَّلَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ }

“Say: Verily, I am commanded to worship Allah with sincere devotion. And I am commanded (this) in order that I may be the first of those who submit themselves to Allah as Muslims.”

(Surah az-Zumar: 11-12)

Until His (swt) Words:

{ قُلْ اللَّهُ أَعْبُدُ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ دِينِي }

“Say: (Only) Allah alone I worship, by performing my Deen purely (i.e. pure from Shirk) for Him.”

(Surah az-Zumar: 14)

Until His (swt) Words:

{ أَلَيْسَ اللَّهُ بِكَافٍ عَبْدَهُ وَيُخَوِّفُونَكَ بِالَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ }

“Is not Allah Sufficient for His slave? Yet they try to frighten you with those (whom they worship) besides Him.”

(Surah az-Zumar: 36)”

The ninth irrefutable evidence

The Mushrik definitely does not fulfill the condition of Kufr bit-Taghoot (rejecting and refusing all that which is worshipped besides Allah) from the conditions of La Ilaaha illa Allah. So how can he be Muslim?

The Kufr bit-Taghoot is a requirement, which some scholars additionally and emphatically mentioned due to its significance even though it is already included in the other requirements. It is however, no issue if some of them overlap. He who submits to Allah (swt) alone, naturally simultaneously makes Kufr with the Taghoot, which means to reject and to not worship the Taghoot.

Allah (swt) says:

{ وَلَقَدْ بَعَثْنَا فِي كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ رَسُولًا أَنْ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَاجْتَنِبُوا الطَّاغُوتَ }

“And verily We have sent among every Ummah (community, nation) a Messenger (proclaiming): Worship Allah and avoid Taghoot.”

(Surah an-Nahl: 36)

{وَالَّذِينَ اجْتَنَبُوا الطَّاغُوتَ أَنْ يَعْبُدُوهَا وَأَنَابُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ لَهُمُ الْبُشْرَى فَبَشِّرْ عِبَادِ}

“Those who avoid the Taghoot by not worshipping them and turn to Allah (in repentance), for them are glad tidings. So announce the good news to My slaves.”

(Surah az-Zumar: 17)

Allah explains here that He ordered all the Prophets to refrain from Taghoot and to call their nations to refrain from it by means of refusing to worship the Taghoot. This is one of the two principles of this Deen, which cannot exist without them. It is impossible for one to be a Muslim without implementing into his life the Kufr bit-Taghoot. As Allah (swt) says:

{لَا إِكْرَاهَ فِي الدِّينِ قَدْ تَبَيَّنَ الرُّشْدُ مِنَ الْغَيِّ فَمَنْ يَكْفُرْ بِالطَّاغُوتِ وَيُؤْمِنْ بِاللَّهِ فَقَدِ اسْتَمْسَكَ بِالْعُرْوَةِ الْوُثْقَىٰ لَا انفِصَامَ لَهَا وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ}

“There is no compulsion in Deen. Verily, the Right Path has become distinct from the wrong path. So whosoever disbelieves (rejects and refuses) the Taghoot and has Imaan (believes) in Allah, then he has grasped the most trustworthy handhold that will never break. And Allah is All-Hearer, All-Knower.”

(Surah al-Baqarah: 256)

The scholars of Tafseer are in agreement that the “most trustworthy handhold” mentioned here is referring to Islam itself. The narration from Muslim has already been presented above that Islam is built upon “...the worship of Allah as One and Unique (note here the word “yuwahhada” is mentioned, which is derived from the word “Tawheed”). And in another narration: “...that (only) Allah is worshipped and one makes Kufr (rejects and refuses) with all that which is worshipped apart from Him”.

Muslim also narrated from Abu Malik who narrated from his father, who said: “I heard the Prophet (saw) saying: Whoever says La Ilaaha illa Allah and makes Kufr against all that which is worshipped other than Him, his property and life is forbidden for us and his reckoning is with Allah”. In another narration: “Whoever declares Allah as One (in worship)...” The rest of the Hadeeth is identical to the rest of the former narration mentioned.

So we ask those who debate defending the Mushrikeen: By Allah, can a person invoke an imaginary god for his means of living? Or go to the graves and invoke the occupants for help or cure and still reject and refuse these false gods at the same time? Whereas, the most important issue concerning the Kufr bit-Taghoot is that one refrains from him by not worshipping him.

The tenth irrefutable evidence

The Mushrik does not fulfill the first action he is supposed to do in order to enter Islam.

Namely the Shahaadah, that there is none worthy of worship except Allah, which includes its implementation with all its conditions, as well as the ‘Ibaada and Tawheed for Allah. So how can such a person be a Muslim?

It is implied here that the first duty which a person is ordered to fulfill is the confession of belief, La Ilaaha illa Allah, and fulfill all its requirements. This is undoubtedly the task which is demanded from him. It would not be correct to say that it is only required from him to fulfill the apparent and outwardly requirements (i.e. practicing Islam in a way that he appears to be Muslim outwardly but inwardly he is not one). It is as such because we expect from his appearance that he fulfills the requirements to be a Muslim. As long as we do not see anything from him that would nullify his Islam, we regard him as a Muslim – even if in reality he is not a Muslim. Exactly such are the hypocrites (Munafiqoon), appearing extraordinarily Islamic. If we but clearly see his Shirk, we conclude with certainty that he has not fulfilled the requirements to be a Muslim and therefore not the Islam which he was ordered to practice. So be aware!

Bukhary narrates from Ibnu ‘Abbas (ra): “The Prophet (saw) sent Mu’aadh (ra) to Yemen. He said to him: Call them to the Shahaadah, that there is none worthy of worship except Allah and that I am the Prophet of Allah. If they follow you in that, then teach them that Allah has ordered to perform five compulsory prayers in the day and night. If they follow you in that, then teach them that Allah has made it obligatory to give Zakaah, which will be taken from the rich and returned to the poor.” In another narration: “The first upon which you call them should be to worship Allah. If they then know Allah, teach them...” In a third narration: “The first upon which you call them should be that they declare Allah as One (in worship, an yuwahhidullah)”.

Al-Bukhary and Muslim narrate from Sahl ibnu Saad (ra) that he said: The Prophet (saw) said on the Day of Khaibar: “Verily, tomorrow I will give the flag to a man through whose hands Allah will give us victory. He loves Allah and His Messenger, and he is loved by Allah and His Messenger.” So the people waited during that night, wondering as to whom he would give the flag. Each one of them was in the hope to be that man. (On the next day) the Prophet (saw) asked: “Where is Ali?” It was said, “He is suffering from eye trouble. So the Prophet (saw) spat in Ali’s eyes and supplicated for him and verily his condition improved, as if he never had pain. So he gave him the flag. Hereupon Ali said: “I will fight them until they are like us.” The Prophet (saw) responded: “Don’t be hasty in anything until you reach them. Then call them to Islam and inform them of what was imposed as a duty upon them. By Allah, even if Allah guides a single person through you than this is better for you than possessing red camels.”

Just like the prohibition of Shirk comes above all other prohibitions, Allah says:

﴿قُلْ تَعَالَوْا أَتْلُ مَا حَرَّمَ رَبِّيَ عَلَيْهِمْ إِلَّا تُشْرِكُوا بِهِ شَيْئًا وَبِالْوَالِدَيْنِ إِحْسَانًا وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا أَوْلَادَكُمْ﴾

“Say: Come, I will recite what your Lord has prohibited you from: Join not anything in worship with him; be good and dutiful to your parents, kill not your children because of poverty.”

(Surah al-An’aam: 151)

All scholars are in agreement that the first to which all Prophets called their nations was Tawheed. Just as Allah (swt) informs us in the Qur'an that this was the Message which every Prophet conveyed to his nation.

And He says:

{اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرُهُ}

“Worship Allah (alone)! You have no other Ilaah (one who is worthy of worship) but Him.”

(Surah al-A'raaf, 59)

Islam protects the life of a Muslim but only then, when the requirements of La Ilaaha illa Allah are fulfilled, this is the main principle. This, because people must assume, as mentioned above, that one is a Muslim as long as there is no sign of Shirk from him which would expose his reality, if he were such. Thus one must assume that he fulfills the requirements of Islam (even if for instance he commits Shirk but no one has seen it from him and therefore no one knows about it). Another way to express this issue would be to say that the protection of one's life is guaranteed through the fulfillment of the apparent (outwardly) requirements of Islam; it is merely a question of formulation. The life of the Mushrik however, who has not yet received the Message is undoubtedly not protected through Islam, as the scholars have also agreed upon – even if it is forbidden to fight or kill him because it is our obligation to invite him to Islam.

In a previously mentioned Hadeeth recorded by Muslim: “The Prophet (saw) said: Whoever says La Ilaaha illa Allah and makes Kufr against all that which is worshipped besides Allah, his property and life are forbidden to you and his reckoning is with Allah.” In another Hadeeth: “The Prophet said: Whoever declares Allah as One...”

Ibnul 'Umar (ra) narrates from the Prophet (saw) that he said: “I have been ordered to fight against the people until they testify that there is none worthy of worship except Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, and until they establish the prayer and pay the Zakaah. And if they do that then they will have gained protection from me for their lives and property, unless [they commit acts that are punishable] in Islam, and their Reckoning will be with Allah the All-Mighty.” Narrated by Bukhary and Muslim.

And like Shaykh Abu Maryam said commenting on this topic: “One must pay attention here that the protection of life and property is gained through showing one's Islam. So long as a person shows it outwardly and a contradictory deed to Islam cannot be seen from him, his Islam is considered as correct. If he should in reality be a liar, the requirement for escaping the Fire on the Day of Judgement will not be fulfilled. The protection of life and property in this world however remains”.

The Munafiqoon have not fulfilled the requirement of the truthful and honest belief which is contradictory to lying and the Muslims are in agreement (Ijmaa') upon this:

{إِذَا جَاءَكَ الْمُنَافِقُونَ قَالُوا نَشْهَدُ إِنَّكَ لَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ إِنَّكَ لَرَسُولُهُ وَاللَّهُ يَشْهَدُ إِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ لَكَاذِبُونَ}

“When the hypocrites came to you (Muhammad) they said: “We bear witness that you are indeed the Messenger of Allah”. Allah indeed knows that you are His Messenger and Allah bears witness that the hypocrites are liars indeed.”

(Surah al-Munaafiqoon: 1)

Despite that, the Munafiqoon will be treated as Muslims. So it can be that some people are skeptical concerning Tawheed and the Message. They however do not admit it openly because they know that they will be executed as soon as they would declare it openly. Thus they keep these doubts to themselves. Regardless of this, such a person will be treated as a Muslim due to what is apparent of him. The scholars are in agreement concerning this.

This means the Islam of this person which is apparent, is the source of his protection (of property and life). This does not consequently mean that he really does fulfill all the requirements of La Ilaaha illa Allah. One can only escape the Fire of Hell if he fulfills all the requirements of La Ilaaha illa Allah”. (Summarized)

The eleventh irrefutable evidence

All those people who have gone astray whom we have to deal with nowadays actually ought to declare (according to their incorrect Aqeedah) the majority of the Mushrikeen of the Arabs (the Mushrikeen in the time before the Prophet was sent) and many others to Muslims. Did not most of them consider themselves belonging to Islam, the Deen of all Prophets, the true Religion (Millah) of Ibrahim (as) – al-Haneefiyyah, monotheism (the rejection of idolatry and worshipping none but Allah)? Due to their ignorance they thought that they were the personified Islam. This would be the conclusion of their incorrect Aqeedah because most of the times Shirk occurred in one of the nations it occurred due to Jahl or wrong Ta'weel (interpretation), not due to stubbornness. Now what is the difference between a Muslim from the Ummah of Muhammad (saw) who falls into Shirk and thus becomes a Mushrik and a Muslim from the Hunafaa' who falls into Shirk and thus becomes a Mushrik? But all of the Mushrikeen from the Arabs were definitely not Muslims, as is also in the consensus of the scholars.

Ibnu Sahmaan narrates from his Shaykh Abd ul-Latif in the book Minhaj ut-Ta'sees (pg. 262): “The majority of the Mushrikeen and Kuffaar from the time of Nooh until our time were and are ignorant and made and make wrong Ta'weel. Just as the people from al-Itihaad wal-Hulool like Ibnu Araby, Ibn ul-Farid, At-Talmasany and others from the Sufis, made Ta'weel; and the grave-worshippers and Mushrikoon (whom the whole discussion is about) made Ta'weel...” until he said: “also the Christians made Ta'weel.”

Shaykh Abu Bateen said: “The Muslims are in agreement upon this that someone who does not declare the Jews and the Christians as Kuffaar or has doubts concerning their Kufr is himself a Kaafir – this, even though we are convinced of the fact that most of them are ignorant and unknowing people.” (Risalat ul-Intisar, ad-Durar: 12: 69, 70)

Those who have gone astray, again according to their incorrect understanding and incorrect Aqeedah, must excuse the Jews and the Christians and also the rest of the Mushrikeen. This is because they excuse people who fall into Shirk Akbar as long it happens out of ignorance. So they do not term them as Mushrikeen and do not treat them as such but call them Muslims and also treat them as their brothers and sisters.

Shaykh Abu Maryam said in his comment: "Nooh (as), like all other Prophets, was sent to a nation of Mushrikeen, who thought about themselves due to their ignorance that they were Muslims (it is narrated from Ibnu Abbas (ra) that he said: There were ten generations between Adam and Nooh, and all of them were following Islam). When Nooh was sent to them after knowledge had disappeared and Jahl had become widespread and they had fallen into Shirk Akbar, they still assumed of themselves to be Muslims. However, in spite of this, Nooh declared them as Mushrikeen and said that they worship something other than Allah. He ordered them to leave this (their Shirk) and to stick to Tawheed. Allah (swt) says:

{لَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ فَقَالَ يَا قَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرُهُ

إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ}

“Indeed We sent Nooh (Noah) to his people and he said: O my people! Worship Allah (alone)! You have no other Ilaah (one who is worthy of worship) but Him. Certainly, I fear for you the torment of a Great Day!”

(Surah al-A’raaf: 59)

{وَأْتَلِ عَلَيْهِمْ نَبَأَ نُوحٍ إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ يَا قَوْمِ إِن كَانَ كَبُرَ عَلَيْكُمْ مَقَامِي وَتَذْكَيرِي بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ

فَعَلَى اللَّهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ فَأَجْمِعُوا أَمْرَكُمْ وَشُرَكَاءَكُمْ ثُمَّ لَا يَكُنْ أَمْرُكُمْ عَلَيْكُمْ غُمَّةً ثُمَّ اقْضُوا إِلَيَّ وَلَا تُنظِرُونِ}

“And recite to them the news of Nooh (Noah). When he said to his people: O my people, if my stay (among you) and my reminding (you) of the Aayaat of Allah is hard on you, then I put my trust in Allah. So devise your plot, you and those whom you attribute to Allah and let not your plot be in doubt for you. Then pass your sentence on me and give me no respite!”

(Surah Yoonus: 71)

{وَأَوْحَىٰ إِلَىٰ نُوحٍ أَنَّهُ لَنْ يُؤْمِنَ مِنْ قَوْمِكَ إِلَّا مَنْ قَدْ آمَنَ فَلَا تَبْتَئِسْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ}

“And it was revealed to Nooh (Noah): Certainly, none of your people will believe except those who have believed already. So be not sad because of what they used to do.”

(Surah Hud: 36)

{وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ فَقَالَ يَا قَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرُهُ أَفَلَا تَتَّقُونَ}

“And indeed We sent Nooh (Noah) to his people and he said: O my people! Worship Allah (alone)! You have no other Ilaah (one who is worthy of worship) but Him. Will you not then be afraid (of Allah)?”

(Surah al-Mu'minoon: 23)

Whoever reads Allah's Book attentively and reflects on it will be absolutely assured that this is the Religion of all Prophets (peace be upon them) and everyone who knows the true meaning of Islam has no doubt about this. The Prophets declared the one who committed Shirk Akbar as a Mushrik who left Islam, even if the Message or the evidence had not reached him; and they declared punishment for the one whom the Message did reach to (but was one of those who rejected it); and a person who did not receive the Message but (in his life) he was capable of gaining knowledge (for instance he was careless, idle or uninterested) – such a person will also be punished. Concerning the punishment, the scholars are also in agreement that there is no difference between the one who had the knowledge and did not act upon it (out of conscious stubbornness) and the one who did not strive to search for knowledge (which caused his ignorance).”

Further evidences

People of Truth (those who honestly strive to find it) in reality, do not need more than the evidences presented until now – even one single evidence ought to be enough for them. If these clear and authentic evidences do not lead to conviction, one's heart is undoubtedly blind and hardened. For such a person it cannot be expected that the following evidences will be more convincing. Yet, the following evidences are no more than emphasizing the issue after much emphasis has already been made. They are rather a strengthening of the hearts for those Muslims who follow the Truth, the Muwahhideen, the Mu'mineen, and a confirmation of the path they follow.

Lest those who have lost their way and gone astray rejoice upon reading the following verses concerning the Mushrikeen of the Arabs and say: “These verses are not mentioned in the correct context because the Message reached these people only from what was left of Millatu Ibrahim”, I would like to mention that indeed such a statement is correct but they have not given thought to the Mushrikeen of the people from the time of Fatrah; there were people who received the Message and there were those who did not receive it. Regardless, Allah (swt) declared them all as Mushrikeen and applied on them all the same Law. Everyone was always in agreement upon this, even the Mubtadi'a amongst the Muslims in former times.

Allah say:

{مَا كَانَ لِلنَّبِيِّ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَنْ يَسْتَغْفِرُوا لِلْمُشْرِكِينَ وَلَوْ كَانُوا أُولِي قُرْبَىٰ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا تَبَيَّنَ لَهُمْ أَنَّهُمْ أَصْحَابُ
الْجَحِيمِ}

“It is not (proper) for the Prophet and those who believe to ask Allah's forgiveness for the Mushrikeen, even though they be of kin (relatives) after it has become clear to them that they are the dwellers of the Fire.”

(Surah at-Taubah: 113)

As previously mentioned, those who have lost their way ought to call, according to their erroneous beliefs, the Mushrikeen who lived before the Prophet was sent as Muslims. They but considered themselves as belonging to Islam, the True Religion (millah) of Ibrahim (as). Actually it should also be allowed to pray for their forgiveness because according to their erroneous beliefs those people who lived before the Prophet was sent are not the ones who are being addressed in this verse – according to them. This is a denial of the verse (in the consensus of the scholars). What for an evil belief that is. Allah declared them all to Mushrikeen, regardless of whether the Message reached them or not. Try to additionally understand their level of absurdity through the following verses:

Allah says:

{وَكَذَلِكَ زَيْنَ لِكَثِيرٍ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ قَتَلَ أَوْلَادَهُمْ شُرَكَاءَهُمْ لِيُرُدُّوهُمْ وَلِيَلْبِسُوا عَلَيْهِمْ دِينَهُمْ

وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ مَا فَعَلُوهُ فَذَرَّهُمْ وَمَا يُفْتَرُونَ}

“And so to many of the Mushrikeen their partners (attributed to Allah by themselves) have made fair-seeming the killing of their children, in order to lead them to their own destruction and cause confusion in their religion. And if Allah had willed, they would not have done so. So leave them alone with their fabrications.”

(Surah al-An'aam: 137)

{وَإِنْ أَحَدٌ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ اسْتَجَارَكَ فَأَجِرْهُ حَتَّى يَسْمَعَ كَلَامَ اللَّهِ

ثُمَّ أَبْلِغْهُ مَأْمَنَهُ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ}

“And if anyone of the Mushrikeen seeks your protection then grant him protection so that he may hear the Word of Allah (the Qur'an) and then escort him to where he may be secure, that is because they are men who know not.”

(Surah at-Taubah: 6)

Right here in this verse above, Allah (swt) mentions the Mushrikeen and confirms that they do not know. The ignorant fall upon this evidence and attack it by saying: “How can you speak of ignorance whereas Islam was well known at that time?” So we ask them: Do you really think that the Message reached every single person in the cities and in the rural areas? Surely, there were among them people to whom the Message of Islam did not reach. And we ask: Are those Mushrikoon not undoubtedly included in this verse? Or are those Mushrikoon also considered as Muslims for them? Just like they regard the Mushrikeen of our time as Muslims and everyone who contradicts them as Khawaarij. How awkward they but think!

Allah says:

{لَمْ يَكُنِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ مُنْفَكِينَ حَتَّى تَأْتِيَهُمُ الْبَيِّنَةُ}

“Those who disbelieved among the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) and the Mushrikeen, were not going to leave (their disbelief) until there came to them clear evidence.”

(Surah al-Baiyyinah: 1)

{فَإِذَا رَكِبُوا فِي الْفُلِكِ دَعَوْا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ فَلَمَّا نَجَّاهُمْ إِلَى الْبَرِّ إِذَا هُمْ يُشْرِكُونَ}

“And if they embark on a boat, they invoke Allah, making their devotion pure for Him only, but when He brings them safely to (dry) land, behold, they committed Shirk (gave a share of their worship to others).”

(Surah al-Ankaboot: 65)

{أَوْ تَقُولُوا إِنَّمَا أَشْرَكَ آبَاؤُنَا مِنْ قَبْلُ وَكُنَّا ذُرِّيَّةً مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ أَفَتُهْلِكُنَا بِمَا فَعَلَ الْمُبْطِلُونَ}

“Or lest you should say: It was only our fathers aforetime who took others as partners in worship along with Allah and we were (merely their) descendants after them. Will You then destroy us because of the deeds of men who negated (Tawheed and worshipped others besides Allah)?”

(Surah al-A'raaf: 173)

{إِنْ هِيَ إِلَّا أَسْمَاءٌ سَمَّيْتُمُوهَا أَنْتُمْ وَآبَاؤُكُمْ مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ بِهَا مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ إِنْ يَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا الظَّنَّ

وَمَا تَهْوَى الْأَنْفُسُ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ مِنْ رَبِّهِمُ الْهُدَى}

“They are but names which you have named – you and your fathers – for which Allah has sent down no authority. They follow but a guess and that which they themselves desire, whereas there has surely come to them the Guidance from their Lord!”

(Surah an-Najm: 23)

{فَلَا تَكُ فِي مِرْيَةٍ مِمَّا يَعْبُدُ هَؤُلَاءِ مَا يَعْبُدُونَ إِلَّا كَمَا يَعْبُدُ آبَاؤُهُمْ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَإِنَّا لَمُوَفُّوهُمْ نَصِيبَهُمْ غَيْرَ مَنْقُوصٍ}

“So be not in doubt as to what these people worship. They worship nothing but what their fathers worshipped before (them). And verily, We shall pay them back (in full) their portion without decreasing it.”

(Surah al-Hud, 109)

{يَا صَاحِبِي السَّجْنِ أَرَبَابٌ مُتَفَرِّقُونَ خَيْرٌ أَمْ اللَّهُ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ

مَا تَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ إِلَّا أَسْمَاءٌ سَمَّيْتُمُوهَا أَنْتُمْ وَآبَاؤُكُمْ مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ بِهَا مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ

إِنِ الْحُكْمُ إِلَّا لِلَّهِ أَمَرَ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا إِيَّاهُ ذَلِكَ الدِّينُ الْقَيِّمُ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ {

"O my two companions of the prison! (I ask you): Are many different lords better or Allah, the One, the Irresistible? You worship besides Him nothing but only names which you and your forefathers have named (forged) – for which Allah has sent down no authority. The command (or judgement) is for none but Allah. He has commanded that you worship none but Him. That is the Straight Religion, but most people know not."

(Surah Yusuf: 39-40)

{وَجَدْتَهَا وَقَوْمَهَا يَسْجُدُونَ لِلشَّمْسِ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَزَيْنَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَعْمَالَهُمْ

فَصَدَّهُمْ عَنِ السَّبِيلِ فَهُمْ لَا يَهْتَدُونَ {

"I found her and her people worshipping the sun instead of Allah and Satan has made their deeds seem pleasing to their eyes, and has kept them away from (Allah's) Path, so they have no guidance."

(Surah an-Naml, 24)

Like it has already been made clear, all Prophets addressed their nations as Mushrikoon. In fact, they did this even before their Prophethood. They demanded from their nations to renounce the Shirk which they committed and to worship Allah alone. This fact has been proven through the Qur'an (as some of the previously mentioned verses signify), the Sunnah and the agreement (Ijmaa') of the Sahaabah.

Similar to the Hadeeth from 'Adiy ibn Hatim (ra), in which the Prophet (saw) mentioned the verse: "They (the Jews and the Christians) have taken their Ahbaar (scholars) and Ruhbaan (monks) as lords besides Allah." Shaykh Abu Bateen commented on this Hadeeth: "Allah disparages them and calls them Mushrikeen even though they did not know that their behavior was equal to worshipping these people [the Ahbaar and Ruhbaan]; and they were not excused due to their ignorance." (Ad-Durar: 10:393, 394)

The scholars are in agreement

It is really surprising that if you provide some of the so-called scholars of nowadays with the Truth, they respond: "No one has ever said this in the entire history" (i.e. no one ever said that the Mushrik is a Mushrik!). They really think everyone is in agreement that a person can worship Allah alone and reject everything else which is worshipped besides Allah and still simultaneously worship someone else at the same time! Or we could formulate it like this, however paradoxical it sounds: that he makes Kufr (complete denial) with all that which he is worshipping besides Allah! سُبْحَانَكَ هَذَا بُهْتَانٌ عَظِيمٌ - Glorified are You, (Oh Allah)! This is a great lie!

Since several statements from scholars concerning this matter have been mentioned before, I have provided below just a few additional narrations from the Ijmaa':

- The scholars in general, those of interpretation, language and history are in agreement that the Arabs who lived before the Prophet was sent were described as the Mushrikoon of the Arabs.
- Shaykh Ishaq ibnu Abd ir-Rahman says: "The people from the time of Fatrah, who neither received the message nor the Qur'an, died in the condition of Jaahiliyyah and can never be called Muslims. The scholars are in agreement upon this. One cannot supplicate for their sins to be forgiven. The scholars had different opinions only in the issue as to whether they will be punished (for that) in the Hereafter or not" (Takfeer ul-Mu'ayyan... pg. 17).
- Shaykh Abd ur-Rahman ibnu Hassan ibnu Muhammad ibnu Abd il-Wahhab, may Allah be merciful to him, said: "The early scholars and scholars of nowadays, from the Sahaabah, the Tabi'een, the A'immah and all from the Ahl us-Sunnah wal-Jama'a are in agreement that a person cannot be a Muslim as long as he does not make himself free from Shirk Akbar and from him who commits it. One has to abhor them and show them enmity, everyone according to his ability and power and one must perform his deeds sincerely for Allah's sake and pure from Shirk" (Ad-Durar: 11:545, 546).

Statements from the scholars of Ahl us-Sunnah wal-Jama'a:

What I have mentioned until now and what will follow is enough for me insha Allah. Whoever would like to read further on the topic should know that scholars have occupied themselves with this question and some have even written entire books concerning this topic.

Abdullah and Hussain, both the sons of Muhammad ibnu Abd il-Wahhab said: "Whoever died amongst the people of Shirk before this Da'wah reached him, but it was known that he committed deeds of Shirk, which he regarded as part of his Deen, on which he died, he is given the status of someone who died in the state of Kufr. Hence it is not allowed to supplicate for him, to slaughter in his name, or to give Sadaqah (charity) in his name. Only Allah (swt) knows what he really is. If the Message reached him in his lifetime and he opposed it or resisted it, he is outwardly and inwardly a Kaafir. If he did not receive the message, his case is for Allah to judge" (Ad-Durar: 10/142).

The sons of Shaykh Muhammad ibnu Abd il-Wahhab and Hamd ibnu Nasir Aali Mu'ammam said: "If one commits deeds of Kufr and Shirk out of Jahl or because there is no one who points out to him (his error), we do not call him Kaafir until the evidences reach him. But we [also] do not say about him that he is a Muslim" (Ad-Durar: 10/136).

The baseless arguments with which they want to nullify the clear evidences from the Qur'an and Sunnah

Foreword: How the Mubtadi'a of all times try to nullify the sources of Sharee'ah:

Whenever the Mubtadi'a find a statement in the Qur'an and Sunnah which contradicts their Bid'ah, they try with all their might to declare their astray belief as correct and then call it a permitted Ijtihad – i.e. a permitted opinion in Islam. They begin to interpret the Qur'an incorrectly and the Ahaadeeth suddenly have no more power of evidence, if accepting those Ahaadeeth means the end of their astray beliefs (like for instance the disgraceful belief that only Hadeeth mutawaatir can be used in the 'Aqeedah as an argument). Or they refer to what is not entirely clear in the Qur'an and the Sunnah in order to cancel out some of it with the other and to turn down thousand clear proofs with it. Then they sell this behaviour as permitted Ijtihad.

Those people who do not know anything themselves and follow these Mubtadi'a in this matter say then: "This is not just anything. It comes from the mighty scholars. They are allowed to bring out such evidences from the sources."

Yes, for you everything is allowed, even to derive Judaism from the sources of Islam. Just like a group of Christians once said to some Sahaabah: "What is your problem with us? In your Book Allah speaks of Himself in the plural form, He says "We". But we also say that he is three." Yes, the word "We" can have two meanings in the Arabic language. One form is when a group is speaking, i.e. many people. The other form is the pluralis majestatis* (majestic plural - to glorify oneself by speaking in the plural form). It is obligatory for the Mu'min to subordinate that which is ambiguous or not entirely clear (mutashaabih) and take that which is clear (muhkam). If he does it not, he will harvest Kufr and an astray belief. As for those Christians, they were very familiar with the mutashaabih, but what about the following verse:

{قل هو الله أحد}

"Say: He is Allah, (the) One"

(Al-Ikhlaas, 1)

...this and thousands of other similar verses, they did not know? What a wonder! In reality, they know this verse very well but they say, "We see it this way, this is what we derived from the sources. We give greater value to this view, this is our Madh'hab (way), this is our Ijtihad."

This is exactly the method practiced by the Mubtadi'a. This procedure they also used in the case of the Hadeeth from Hatib ibnu Abi Balta'a. They say: "We prefer to say that he committed Kufr but that the Prophet (saw) did not make Takfeer on him. So it doesn't matter. Therefore, it is also no problem if a Muslim helps a Kaafir to kill all Muslims. Don't you dare declare this (such and such) Muslim to a Kaafir, don't you know the Hadeeth from Hatib?!" One must say to those people – to formulate it politely: "Shut your mouth!" They did likewise with the Hadeeth of Dhaatu Anwaat. They say: "We prefer to say that they committed Shirk but despite that remained Muslims. No problem, that's great. With this kind of Tafseer, we just disregard one hundred clear evidences whereas it would be easier for us to interpret the Hadeeth without contradicting one single text from the Qur'an and Sunnah. But this is simply our Madh'hab". Verily, you are right. This is the Madh'hab of Shaytaan! And they sacrifice their lives searching for these things, as we will see by means of some examples.

At the same time you find them occupied with the tiniest details in the sciences of Hadeeth. They explain to the people that it is prohibited to cause a conflict between two Ahaadeeth as long as it is still possible to interpret them in a way so as to unite their meanings (i.e. to interpret them in a way that they no more contradict each other): even if it generally has no affect on your life whether you take this Hadeeth or the other. They say it is never permitted for you that if you can unite them both, to prefer the other.

This is indeed true, but when we criticize them for declaring thousands and thousands of Kuffaar to Muslims and thereby causing a mighty Fasaad (mischief), then it is suddenly no problem anymore, without any reason, to make one evidence contradict the other. Even more so, to interpret the evidence in a way that it contradicts hundreds of clear evidences from the Qur'an and Sunnah, and furthermore the basis of this Deen.

So, with Allah as a Witness over you: why are the Christians not allowed to interpret "We" (of Allah) from the Qur'an and Sunnah as "three"? Say it! Because through this they would contradict hundreds of evidences from the Qur'an and Sunnah. Say it! And be witnesses over yourselves for the amount of Kufr in your speech! Or was that which the Christians said also a permitted "Ijtihad" in their Deen?!

I have listed below and explained the most popular Shubuhaat which they come with. Even though there are more than I have provided, I have limited the list because I expect the reader will be able to ward off the rest himself: those with the erroneous belief always base their erroneous arguments on the same principle. Whosoever understands the basis of this Deen, his intellect cannot accept any dalaal (error, going astray). He is just required to give a little thought to their Shubuhaat and will easily be able to recognize them and refute them.

The first Shubhah: The Hadeeth regarding Dhaatu Anwaat

At-Tirmidhee narrates from Abu Waaqid al-Laithee (ra): "The Prophet (sas) went to Hunain. He came across a tree called Dhaatu Anwaat which belonged to the Mushrikeen. The Mushrikoon used to hang upon it their weapons (to seek blessing from it). They (those among the Sahaabah who were new in the Deen) said: "Oh Rasulallah, make for us a Dhaatu Anwaat like theirs." Upon this he (sas) said: "Subhaan Allah! That which you have said is the same as the people of Moosa (Banu Israa'eel) said: "Make for us an Ilaah (one whom they can worship) just like their Aalihah (pl. of Ilaah)". Then the Prophet (sas) said: "By the One in Who's Hand my soul is, you will definitely follow the way of those who were before you." Tirmidhee said about this Hadeeth that it is hassan Sahih.

There exist two explanations of this Hadeeth – the second of the two is weak but was given preference to by subsequent scholars of the Da'wah Najdiyyah. There also exists a third, incorrect, newly devised interpretation of the Hadeeth. To opt for this interpretation is in no case permitted as it contradicts the clear evidences from the Qur'an, the Sunnah and the consensus of the scholars. In reality, all that we get from the Qur'an and Sunnah and the consensus of the scholars concerning the basis of this Deen are unchallengeable proofs implying the erroneous nature of this third interpretation. Fact is, there are no evidences whatsoever for this third interpretation. Hence, we find no notable scholar in the history of Islam who made a similar absurd interpretation – until this present time, the time of unimaginable ignorance. Those in whose hearts there is a deviation are delighted with the prohibited, clear-evidences-contradicting, ambiguous statements. They clench their teeth tightly to their statements and make them the basis of their Deen. They always prefer the ambiguous to the hundreds of clear evidences. This is the skill of all Mubtadi'a. The Prophet (sas) warned the Sahaabah strictly against such people. We seek refuge by Allah from this Dalaal.

The first interpretation

The Sahaabah requested the Prophet (sas) for Shirk Asghar (the so-called minor Shirk – it is a sin which can easily lead to Shirk Akbar, or a sin which is described as Shirk but does not exclude one from Deen). They requested him to invoke Allah to make for them a tree, through which He will give them barakah (blessing) so that they can hang up their weapons onto it. The blessing from the tree should shift to the weapons so that they could successfully fight the Kuffaar.

This action is considered as Shirk Asghar due to the following reasons:

1. They asked for something which was regarded as imitating the Kuffaar (tashabuh bil-kuffaar).
2. It contained imitating the Kuffaar in a matter concerning their worship for something other than Allah – in a similar way and in a similar place, resembling the Shirk of the idolaters.
3. It was a method which could have led the people to Shirk Akbar. People would be inclined to begin worshipping the tree itself (beginning to regard the tree itself as the provider of blessing) – especially because they desired the tree for the fight against their enemy.
4. The increased fear existed that people could fall in Shirk Akbar since the Mushrikoon had the habit of worshipping something other than Allah exactly at this location.

Due to this the Prophet (sas) pointed out their mistake in such a strict manner, comparing their statement with the one from Banu Israa'eel. The use of the letter "Kaf" on its own in this Hadeeth however, does not mean in the Arabic language "to be completely identical to" something; one item may also differ from the other in a few points. The implication of this partial comparison from the Prophet (sas) for the Sahaabah (who were new in Islam) was to show them the degree of the falseness of their request and thereby to frighten them away from it strongly.

Shaykh Abu Maryam said in his comment: "Furthermore, one does not find in the reason of the prohibition which is mentioned in the Hadeeth any mention of Shirk Akbar. The Mushrikoon hung up their weapons on the tree, but merely hanging up the weapons without worshipping the tree itself, is a door leading to Shirk but on its own however, is not Shirk. So the Sahaabah asking for a tree on which they could hang up their weapons was an imitation of the Kuffaar but not any worship of the tree. The request of the Sahaabah (ra) to the Prophet (sas) does not show in any way that they wanted to worship the tree. They merely asked for a tree on which they could hang up their weapons."

Shaykh ul-Islam Ibnu Taymiyya comments similarly on the Hadeeth after mentioning it: "The Prophet (sas) rebuked them for merely attempting to imitate the Kuffaar concerning a tree by which they wanted to stop by and hang up their weapons. What is then with the one who resembles the Mushrikeen much more or resembles Shirk itself! So he who searches for some soil because he thinks that searching for it will bring him some goodness – and the Sharee'ah rejects such an action and it is from the hated and one is worse than the other – no matter whether it is a tree, a brook, a mountain, a cave and so on: whether he wants to pray there or supplicate or recite the Qur'an, remember Allah (swt) there or make a sacrifice. In other words, a specific "Ibaadah which he wants to perform especially in that place even though the Sharee'ah has not prescribed any special treatment for this place, regardless whether at this specific place or this type of place generally." (Iqtida' us-Siraat il-Mustaqeem: 2/644)

Both Shaykh ul-Islam Ibn ul-Qayyim and Shaykh ul-Islam Muhammad ibnu Abd il-Wahhab commented similarly on the Hadeeth (even if those who do not understand or do as if they do not understand his statements, claim something else). And also Ash-Shatibiyy said this before them.

This first interpretation of the Hadeeth is the most clear and strongest in the evidences provided. In my opinion, one must opt for this interpretation since it is unimaginable that the Sahaabah – even though they were new in the Deen – did not know the basis of Islam, namely that there is nothing worthy of worship except Allah. The Arabs of that time undoubtedly understood this from the phrase La Ilaaha illa Allah and only due to this reason did Abu Jahl and all the Kuffaar show enmity against the Prophet (sas): it rebuked their worshipping others besides Allah. If la Ilaaha illa Allah would really mean there is no Creator other than Allah, like the philosophers – who have gone far astray – claim (they belong undoubtedly to the people who are most ignorant of Allah), then Abu Jahl would have been the closest friend of the Prophet (sas). Abu Jahl knew that there is no Creator other than Allah; likewise the Pharaoh, he was also aware of this fact even though he demonstrated the contrary as we undoubtedly know from the Qur'an. Thus said Shaykh ul-Islam Muhammad ibnu Abd il-Wahhab: "What for an evil nation (this is) that even Abu Jahl knows better than them what La Ilaaha illa Allah means." Thus, there is no doubt that even before (or without) entering Islam, the people knew precisely that this is the first and most important change which Islam requires from them. So after entering Islam, this issue ought to be even clearer to them. How could they not know this when they were surrounded by the other Sahaabah who were in Islam since a longer time and the Prophet (sas) himself was among them? This appears impossible to me, wallahu a'lam.

Shaykh Abu Maryam said in his comment: “The Mushrikoon who heard from the Prophet (sas) themselves, knew what he wants. As Allah (swt) also informs us concerning them that they said:

{أَجْعَلِ الْآلِهَةَ إِلَهًا وَاحِدًا إِنَّ هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ عَجَابٌ * وَأَنْطَلِقَ الْأُمَمَ مِنْهُمْ أَنْ أَمْشُوا وَاصْبِرُوا
عَلَى آلِهَتِكُمْ إِنَّ هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ يُرَادُ}

Has he made the Aalihah (those whom they worship besides Allah) all into One Ilaah (Allah)? This is really something very strange!” And the leaders among them went about (saying): Go on, and remain constant to your Aalihah (those whom you are worshipping)! For this (what Muhammad is saying) is truly a thing designed (against you)!”

(Surah Saad, 5–6)

Note that the ignorant philosophers who went far astray were very confused about verses like these because they thought that the meaning of "Ilaah" is "creator".

The Mushrikoon knew the meaning of Islam, literally and lawfully. In the Musnad from Imam Imaam Ahmad, Anas has narrated: “The Prophet (sas) of Allah said to a man: “Embrace Islam.” The man said: “I dislike it.” Thereupon the Prophet (sas) said: “Even if you dislike it”. The Prophet (sas) ordered this man to enter Islam without having explained it to him before but the man felt a dislike towards it and there is no doubt that the man felt this aversion because he had understood the true meaning of Islam, which contradicted his old religion. Hence, the man felt an uneasiness to leave his religion. It is undoubtedly clear that he knew the truth of Islam even before the Prophet (sas) called him to that.

Al-Bukhary narrated from Al-Bara’ that he reported: “A man in his armor came to the Prophet and said: “Oh Allah’s Apostle! Shall I fight or embrace Islam first?” The Prophet said: “Embrace Islam (first) and then fight.” So he embraced Islam, and was martyred. Allah's Apostle said: “A little work, but a great reward.” This man did not come in order to learn Islam – he already knew Islam and that is why he did not say “Oh Allah’s Apostle, teach me Islam!” Rather, in his statement he meant to ask the Prophet (sas) whether it would be better to fight first or to enter into Islam. The Prophet (sas) did not demand from the man to enter the battle first – like it is widespread nowadays among people – but to enter into Islam first. The Prophet knew that the man understands Islam and his teachings and therefore did not demand him to learn Islam first, but to enter it and then to fight for it.

The Hadeeth also implies that mere knowledge is not sufficient. One must have the will to enter into Islam and to publicly free oneself from all that which contradicts it. It is of no benefit if someone knows the true meaning of Islam and understands what Islam calls to until he accepts it, loves it, follows it and submits to Allah (swt). The vast majority of the Arabs knew the meaning of Islam after the call of the Prophet (sas) had become well-known. It is narrated in the Musnad of Imaam Ahmad that Jabir said: “The Prophet stayed in Mecca for ten years, he went to the people in their houses, at ‘Ukadh and Majanna (two places) and at the time of Hajj at Mina saying: "Who gives me shelter, who leads me to the victory, so that I can spread the Message of my Lord, he shall be granted Paradise. It was even said to those who came from Yemen or Mudar: "Watch out for the boy (the Prophet) from Quraish that he does not lead you in temptation!" And he (sas) walked between their riding animals, while they pointed at him with their fingers.”

The second interpretation

The Sahaabah asked Allah for something they could worship besides Him. Without a doubt, one who asks for such a thing is a Mushrik and leaves this Deen, even if he is not aware of the error in his deed. For in reality such a person never even entered Islam, even if his Shirk was not apparent to the people before. So if one who wants to commit Shirk without knowing that Shirk is forbidden, such a person is a Mushrik and not a Muslim, as the clear proofs which were already mentioned before show. This would mean that the Sahaabah who are referred to in the Hadeeth of Dhaatu Anwaat became Mushrikeen, which is indeed possible according to the text in the Hadeeth. It must not necessarily be narrated that he (sas) called them to repent or said to them that they had left the Deen or that they became Mushrikeen. They however immediately took back their request, let alone following their request with deeds. According to this interpretation, they are exactly like those of Banu Isra'eel. The Sahaabah were new in the Deen and therefore were not considered as becoming Kuffaar, who ought to be punished. The punishment of Kufr can only exist after the receipt of the evidences. This is what the scholars of the Da'wah Najdiyyah meant, such as Abd ur-Rahman ibnu Hassan in "Fat'h ul-Majeed" and SulaImaan ibnu Abdillah in "Taisir il-Aziz il-Hamid". None of them ever claimed, not even once, that the Sahaabah were not Mushrikoon at the time of this request (because the Sahaabah did not know that this request contradicts the basis of Islam, even though this was not apparent until then. What they said was that the Sahaabah did not become Kuffaar (because they were ignorant, in other words they did not deny the Truth). The Juhaal however, do not know the books of the scholars of Da'wah Najdiyyah apart from a few small parts which they are pleased with after they have interpreted them wrongly.

The scholars of the Da'wah Najdiyyah also used this Hadeeth in order to show that someone who makes such a request but does not however implement it as deeds, such a person remains Muslim and does not fall out of Islam – as long as he immediately recognizes the Truth, accepts it and acts upon it (in this case, by abstaining from doing the action he asked to do). One does not speak here of overstepping the boundaries of Islam because the Sahaabah changed their opinion immediately, understood the correct Islam, accepted it and realized that they did not understand and accept it before.

The scholars of the Da'wah Najdiyyah knew exactly that when one says to another, "Come, let us call this waliyullah for help (in matters which only Allah is capable of doing)", he immediately becomes a Mushrik due to the Shirk which is present in this statement and due to the Shirk which is present in his heart – even if he ultimately does not carry out the deed which he intended to do. They knew these facts with certainty and anyone who reads their books will become sure of that.

In contrary, one of the Muftis of the Taghoot of the Arabian Peninsula, claims that if a person says, "Come, let us call this waliyullah for help (in matters which only Allah is capable of doing)", that in fact he remains a Muslim as long as he does not convert this statement into deeds. Further, he says this (above) Hadeeth “shows it is possible that a Muwahhid does not know some partial matters of Tawheed... whereas the Sahaabah knew the meaning of La Ilaaha illa Allah and what comes under it, however did not know some other partial meanings". He explains that even though they asked for Shirk Akbar in that situation, someone who wishes for this and does not find anyone to prevent him from doing it "and then really worships someone besides Allah, he has thereby (only then) destroyed his Tawheed." So this Mufti does not know that the mere statement invalidates one's Tawheed, even if he continues his life ignorant of this fact and even if he never commits this deed. This perspective of his is often also expressed in his speeches. Subhan Allah, Allah has taken away from him all wisdom. This is the outcome of those who draw near to the Taghoot. They distance themselves more and more from their Lord and the knowledge of Tawheed. In fact, it is peculiar that he pretends to know about Tawheed and also teach it! The one who said, "Well, maybe he means the Tawheed ("the union") of the western armies on Muhammad's peninsula", truly did hit the nail on the head.

It is only the Juhaal who claim that it is no problem to commit Shirk and only they ascribe this opinion to the scholars of the Da'wah Najdiyyah. But how could they say this when all the scholars are in agreement that in this Dunya there is no excuse for the one who commits Shirk Akbar out of ignorance, likewise they are in agreement that such a person is a Mushrik and certainly not a Muslim – only for this reason did they begin their Da'wah! There exist entire books in which their statements about the Ijmaa' in this matter are collected. However, the people of Bid'ah, who only follow their vain desires, do not know this fact. They prefer to accuse the scholars of having said the nonsense which they in fact say themselves. Interestingly enough they simultaneously are able to take out the smallest and most concealed details from the books – namely always then, when it matches their desires – in order so that they may represent themselves as scholars before the people. In reality, they leave the basis of this Deen aside and when they speak about it at all then only nonsense and Jahl comes forth. The scholars of desires apparently have no time for "something like this" and one can almost say that they see the basis of this Deen as something completely insignificant. On the other hand they rather summon large meetings to talk about a narrator who is da'eef (weak) mentioned in a Hadeeth which is da'eef mentioned in a book which is da'eef. Wallahi, I have seen people conversing with each other long and broad about how to get rid of the last drop of urine in order so that they do not have to burn in the Fire. Today they are Murtaddoon, who support all types of Kuffaar against the Muslims and rejoice if they are able to get the Muslims to be punished. That was but just a cursed, false and alleged fear. Concerning the issues of the basis of this Deen, they do not even know that there exists something as such. Oh, but how dare someone come with the Truth – about which all the scholars are in agreement – he will be regarded very soon as a Kharijiyy by them. They have themselves most probably read a hundred times the titles of the books in which the basis of this Deen is explained very precisely. However, they rather act as if they have forgotten all of it. They have more important matters on their schedule; they are too occupied with their urine. But he who searches for the Truth seriously and with Ikhlās will very soon come across these books; in fact he will come across these books at the beginning of his Talab (striving for knowledge) and will quickly understand the significance of these questions and the significance of occupying himself with them. For this is the essence and basis of this Deen.

The third, incorrect and implicitly to be rejected interpretation of this Hadeeth

The Sahaabah worshipped someone other than Allah but that is no problem, they did not know. Thereby, they have confirmed the entrance of every Mushrik into Islam – even if he stands on the pulpit and professes: "I am a Kaafir!" No, even then those who went astray would rush to him and say: "No, my beloved brother in Islam. Don't say this. You are a Muslim, you just don't know it." To the rest of the people they say: "Don't you dare call him a Kaafir. He is just a poor Jaahil who doesn't know what he's saying. There are several reasons which prevent him from being a Kaafir. Or are you from the Khawarij? It would be incredible injustice to call this man a Kaafir. Takfeer is not allowed in our Deen. A Muslim does not scold and curse (constantly) ...."

They ask: "Why are we not allowed to say this whereas the "honoured and well-known" scholars also said it?" Subhaan Allah! Do you really believe that every scholar is allowed to extract from the Ahaadith all kinds of nonsense, no matter how many clear evidences from the Qur'an he contradicts thereby? Truly, this is how they have managed to draw out the worst Kufriyyaat from the sources. Their supporters say furthermore concerning their interpretations of the sources that they are well justified interpretations and wise derivations and that this is their well thought out and clear Ijtihad. Whereas it is in fact untainted Kufr, which they have brought out from the depths of their desires and from the whispers of the Shaytaan.

Shaykh Abu Maryam said in his comments: "Those who seek to destroy the basis of Islam using the wrong interpretation of this Hadeeth, to them it must be said: "What if the Sahaabah asked the Prophet for worshipping Al-Lat, Al-'Uzza and Manaat? Would they then be Kuffaar or not? Or what if they had said that Allah is one of three and Jesus (as) is the son of Allah? Or if they had doubts concerning the Prophethood of Muhammad (sas), would they then be Kuffaar or not?" If they argue that (in such situations) the Sahaabah would not become Kuffaar, then indeed they have contradicted that which every Muslim must unconditionally know: namely, that the one who does any of the above deeds is a Kaafir and whosoever does not declare him as such becomes a Kaafir himself. If they but say that (in such situations) the Sahaabah would indeed become Kuffaar, then please explain to us the difference between these situations and the situation mentioned in the Hadeeth. This Shirk, which the Sahaabah apparently sought, is exactly the same type of Shirk which the other Mushrikoon committed. They saw how the Mushrikoon did it and asked the Prophet (sas) for permission to do the same. So, why do you excuse one group of people but not the other group who asked to worship Al-Lat, Al-'Uzza and Manaat? The difference lies exclusively in the names of these idols."

The second Shubhah: The Hadeeth regarding Mu'aadh

Ibn Maajah narrates from Abdullah ibn Abi Awfaa: "When Mu'aadh returned from the Shaam area he prostrated himself before the Prophet (sas). The Prophet (sas) asked him: "What is this, oh Mu'aadh?" He replied: "I visited the Shaam area and witnessed them prostrating before their priests and patriarchs. I wished that we do the same for you." The Prophet (sas) said: "Do not do it. If I were to order anyone to prostrate before anyone else besides Allah, I would have ordered the wife to prostrate herself before her husband. By Him in whose Hand is the soul of Muhammad, the wife will not fulfill the rights of her Lord until she fulfills the rights of her husband; and even if he were to request for her whilst she were sitting upon a camel's saddle, she ought not to refuse him.”

The Shubhah raised concerning this Hadeeth is similar to the Shubhah raised concerning the Hadeeth of Dhaatu Anwaat. The people who have a deviation in their hearts also dare to claim here that Mu'aadh worshipped the Prophet (sas) by prostrating to him and took him (sas) as a partner besides Allah (swt) but that he was excused. They claim that Mu'aadh thereby must have left the Deen because he worshipped the Prophet (sas), however the Prophet (sas) did not declare him as a Kaafir, instead was of the following opinion (according to their absurd “analysis”): “That is no problem, Mu'aadh. If you are Jaahil and you don't know that you are not allowed to worship me and take me as a partner besides Allah and regard me as equal to Allah, then it is no problem.” They insist on this interpretation (that Mu'aadh became a Kaafir and the Prophet (sas) excused him) and say: “This is our opinion, our Madh'hab – even though it is easy for us to say that Mu'aadh prostrated himself before the Prophet (sas) only as a greeting to welcome him and not to worship him, never mind! Just like in the case of the family of Yusuf (as) and the angels and Adam (as). We don't care! We prefer the ridiculous interpretation, which contradicts the entire Qur'an, the Sunnah, the Ijmaa'a of the Muslims and the essence of this Deen. The understanding of this Hadeeth which matches to the rest of this Deen perfectly – that understanding we'd rather ignore.” Glory be to Allah! Glory be to the One who makes the people blind for the Truth according to the degree they follow their whims and desires. Oh you in whose heart there is a deviation, why are you then not of the opinion that the family of Yusuf (as) worshipped him? Why are you then not of the opinion that when the Prophet (sas) said: “...I would have ordered the wife to prostrate before her husband” that he (sas) actually meant to say: “If I were to order anyone to worship someone other than Allah, then I would have ordered the woman to worship her husband”? How can they then claim to understand something about this Deen?

In reality, this Hadeeth is maybe not even saheeh. Subhaan Allah! Take a look at how they try to twist this Deen by means of one Hadeeth – and only Allah knows whether it is even authentic or not.

One must reflect also on the narration in the Musnad of Imaam Ahmad. Isma'eel narrates from Ayyub from Al-Qaasim al-Shaibaany from Abdullah ibnu Abi Awfaa: “Mu'aadh traveled to Yemen or Shaam area. There he found the Christians prostrating themselves before their bishops and priests. He said to himself that the Prophet (sas) has more right to be honoured. When he returned he told the Prophet (sas) of this and said: “I wanted to do the same for you; I thought that you have more right to be honoured.” The Prophet (sas) replied: “If I were to order anyone to do this then I would have ordered the woman to prostrate herself before her husband. By Him, in Whose Hand is the soul of Muhammad, a woman will not fulfill the rights of her Lord completely until she fulfills the rights of her husband completely...”. Abd ur-Rahman ibnu Abi Layla reports from his father about Mu'aadh ibnu Jabal that he said: “...that he found in Shaam area the Christians prostrating themselves...” So I asked: “Why do you do this?” They explained to me that this was the way to greet the Prophets in the past. I said: “We have more right to do this with our Prophet.” The Prophet (sas) thus explained to me that they were keen to spread about lies concerning their Prophets and manipulated their books. He (sas) said: “Allah has given us something better. He has given us the Salaam, which is the greeting of the people of Paradise”.

The third Shubhah: Muhammad’s (sas) Ummah has been pardoned for its mistakes

They use Allah’s Words:

{وَلَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا أَخْطَأْتُمْ بِهِ وَلَكِنْ مَا تَعَمَّدَتْ قُلُوبُكُمْ}

“And there is no sin on you concerning that in which you made a mistake, except in regard to what your hearts deliberately intend.”

(Surah al-Ahzaab, 5)

It is narrated from Ibnu ‘Abbaas that the Prophet (sas) said: “Verily, Allah has pardoned for my people their mistakes and forgetfulness...” This Hadeeth was declared as saheeh by Ibnu Hibbaan and al-Haakim.

In reality, the response to this Shubhah ought to be clear and does not require any explanation. For those who commit Shirk, they anyway fall out of the definition mentioned in the verse and Hadeeth – as they have left Islam and are not at all addressed. Is it possible for a scholar to say: “The Mushrik is pardoned for this mistake of his because Allah has forgiven the Muslim Ummah their mistakes”!?!? This contradiction is so tremendously obvious and transparent that the illiterate can recognize the contradiction before the literate does. A Muslim would not make such a statement, let alone a scholar. Such can only occur in this time, the time of Jaahiliyya and alienation from the true Deen. Protect us, Oh Allah! They say: “The definition of a mistake is to do something wrong thinking it is correct.” Subhan Allah! It is as though one would say: “If someone commits Kufr and does it openly by denying and opposing the evidences whereby the true definition of a Kaafir could hence be applied on him – it’s no problem as long as he thinks that he is acting correctly by opposing Allah. Don’t forget! The Muslims will be forgiven for the mistakes they made and this person is a Muslim who made a mistake”. It is unnecessary to make a comment here. Where do people learn this sort of Fiqh? From the Jews?

The fourth Shubhah: It also happens that a person falls into Kufr and is not declared as a Kaafir if there was obstacle (mani’) leading him to the action he made

It must be mentioned here that it is occasionally found in the sources concerning a certain person that he committed Kufr or Shirk. This however does not always necessarily mean that he committed Kufr Akbar or Shirk Akbar, bringing a person out of Islam and making him dwell in Hellfire forever, without any chance of forgiveness. In fact, here the mentioning of Kufr and Shirk means Kufr Asghar and Shirk Asghar (minor Kufr and minor Shirk, which do not exclude one from the Deen). An example for this would be a Hadeeth recorded in al-Bukhary in Kitaab ul-Imaan by Ibnu Mas’ood: “to harm your Muslim brother is fisq (act of evil); to kill him is Kufr (disbelief)”. Bearing this Hadeeth in mind the Qur’an shows us that it is possible for Muslims to fight each other: “And if two parties (or groups) among the Mu'mineen fall into a fight...” (Surah Hujuraat: 9). So, in this verse Allah calls them Mu'mineen and in the verse following it, He calls them “nothing else than brothers”. Also the following Hadeeth narrated by Imaam Ahmad in his Musnad from Ibnu ‘Abbas demonstrates this matter similarly: A companion of the Prophet (sas) once said to him, “...it is as Allah wills and you will”. Upon this the Prophet (sas) immediately responded, “are you making me equal to Allah? (Say) as Allah alone wills”.

A deviation from the actual meaning of a certain word is however not permitted except if a clear proof is present, and this is known. But that is not the subject of our discussion. We are discussing about someone who worships something other than Allah. Whereas it is known that Shirk Asghar does not include worshipping something other than Allah. Nevertheless, Shirk Asghar becomes Shirk Akbar as soon as it includes worshipping something other than Allah.

When some people say “he fell into Kufr, however Kufr did not fall onto him”, they actually confuse many people and make it difficult to understand the definition of the term Kufr and thus also this Deen. For he who does not understand the true meaning of Kufr also does not understand the true meaning of Imaan and consequently does not recognize the boundary between the two. It is therefore necessary to cling to the explanations and definitions disclosed in the revelations, of Allah’s Book and the Sunnah of His Messenger (sas). The statement mentioned above is not found anywhere in the words of the Prophet (sas) or the Salaf. Hence, it is also not found in the words of the early scholars, who had a solid understanding regarding questions on Imaan. Whenever they mention something similar, it arises clearly from their statements that they always meant Kufr Akbar. We can see this in the following example of a Hadeeth which Bukhary narrated from Anas that the Prophet (sas) said: “...that he returns into Kufr...” So he who returns into Kufr is undoubtedly a Kaafir and has left the Deen of Allah. An example from one of the scholars would be the statement of al-Hafiz Ibnu Hajar, may Allah be merciful to him, who mentioned in his “Fat’h ul-Bari”: “He said it in Kufr”. Here he clearly meant to say that this certain person said something while he was still a Kaafir and before entering Islam. Therefore, one must hold to the terms asserted in the Sharee’ah and refrain from all the rest. Some people however take for granted such examples and come to an entirely incorrect conclusion, for instance they say: “A man commits Kufr but his Kufr (meaning here that the man is a Kaafir) will be forgiven because he is a Jaahil.” This is the biggest nonsense! When Kufr takes place in actual fact, it will never be forgiven. So it cannot be that a man who committed Kufr Akbar in the Dunya will stand in front of Allah (swt) on the Day of Judgement and his Kufr will be forgiven (if he never made a Taubah). In reality, some obstacle had prevented him to fall into Kufr in the first place; it is incorrect to say that he did commit Kufr and he is simply excused from it. The difference between committing Kufr knowingly and committing an act of Kufr without knowing it is clear and as you read further it will become clearer in sha Allah.

If the true meaning of a Kaafir exists in a person, he is a Kaafir – for this there is no excuse. Similarly, we can apply this to the true meaning of Shirk. The most right would be to say: "It concerns a statement or an action, if he did it intentionally out of refusal or denial of the Qur’an and Sunnah, he would thereby become a Kaafir." Take for example the ignorance of a specific Aayah. This Jahl could be the obstacle preventing one from falling into Kufr; the person actually never did commit Kufr (because he never refused the Qur'anic verse). How can someone, of a sound mind, declare that this ignorant person is a Kaafir and his Kufr will be forgiven? It must be clarified again that Kufr can only then occur once this person has received the knowledge through the Message and then turns away, refuses or denies it. It is not right to proclaim that a person can commit Kufr before receiving the Message and will be punished for it, as Ibnu Taymiyya has repeated several times. He who absolutely does not know the Message cannot fall into Kufr and cannot be punished for it. This is even linguistically very simple to understand. Ibnu Mandhur said: “Kufr is the denial of the blessings (Ni'am) and the opposite of gratefulness”.

Allah (swt) says:

{وَقَالُوا إِنَّا بِكُلِّ كَافِرُونَ}

And they say: "For us, we reject all such things (we make Kufr with all of it)."

(Surah al-Qasas: 48)

In other words “denying, negating”. And kafara ni'matallahi yakfuruha kufuuran wa Kufraanan wa kafara biha means to deny, hide or cover Allah's Grace, derived from the word "satr" (cover); and some scholars said because the one who committed Kufr has a "covered" heart. So when a word is used in matters of the Shari'a, the actual meaning of that word never entirely leaves its Arabic meaning. After all, Allah revealed the Qur'an in pure and clear Arabic language. This is the case even when the meaning of the word is broadened in certain situations, or when specific rules and conditions are applied to the word. The one who denies something (the Kaafir) can only then be a denier if he knows the Truth or if he had the opportunity or possibility to learn the Truth but denied or refused it. There is no Kufr except after gaining knowledge about a matter and then he denies it and refuses it – then he becomes a Kaafir. Hence it ought to be clear that if a person worships anything other than Allah or besides Allah, he indeed committed Shirk and therefore became a Mushrik – whether or not he was aware that the action he did was Shirk. Likewise if he committed Kufr Akbar his action is that of Kufr. Yet if he does not know that this action of his was Kufr and therefore does not deny any of the sources (which condemns this action as Kufr), the true meaning of Kufr cannot be applied to him; this is impossible on grounds of his ignorance. Consider a man who says something which contradicts a verse of the Qur'an. He however does not know about that verse. Is he now a Kaafir who will be forgiven? In other words, is a man who does not know a Qur'anic verse a Kaafir? Or is it not rather such that he did not even do anything wrong at all because the Aayah never reached him? Herewith it is made clear that the assertion is simply wrong to say “a person fell into Kufr but it will be forgiven” or “he will be forgiven for being a Kaafir”. Rather, the true meaning of Kufr does not even apply to him in first place – neither linguistically, nor according to the law of Islam, nor from common sense may he be called as such. So he who has committed Shirk (Ashraka) and worships something other than Allah ('abada ghairallahi), and equates something with Him ('adala bi rabbihi) and takes something besides Him for worship (ittakhadha ma'Allahi ilaahan akhara), he thus will be called a Mushrik, a person worshipping something other than Allah ('aabidun li ghairallahi), equating something with his Lord ('aadilun bi rabbihi), and taking something for worship besides Allah (muttakhidhun ma'Allahi Ilaahan akhara). This is necessarily the outcome and result from the understanding of language, Shari'a and common sense. Whoever has a sparklet of knowledge of the Arabic language will know that the active participle (Ism ul-faa'il) carries the meaning of the verb (fi'l) in itself. It is therefore allowed in the Arabic language to replace the verb with the active participle in order to take over its function.

The statements of those who have gone astray are indeed very strange; according to them it is wrong to call a person who drinks alcohol “a drinker”. They say, “Don't say that, he probably does not know”. Subhaan Allah! Did he drink the alcohol now or not? Or concerning a man who has a sexual relationship with a woman who is not his wife, they will say: “Don't call him Zaani, he doesn't know”. Did he now go to that woman or not? A person is named according to his deeds and actions – even if he will not be punished as a result of these deeds. The same applies to the Mushrik. Subhaan Allah! Did he or did he not worship something or someone other than Allah?

The fifth Shubhah: Someone who commits Shirk under compulsion (ikrah) is also not a Mushrik

It appears that he worships something or someone other than Allah. Allah has however ordered us, only in this case, not to judge a man according to what we see if we know of his Ikrah; but if he also inwardly worships something or someone other than Allah, then he is a Mushrik without a doubt. Admittedly, we are not able to discover what is really in his inside. Ikrah is the only exception in the matter of Shirk; Allah excluded the Mukrah (the one who is under compulsion) clearly in His Book:

{مَنْ كَفَرَ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ إِيمَانِهِ إِلَّا مَنْ أُكْرِهَ وَقَلْبُهُ مُطْمَئِنٌّ بِالْإِيمَانِ وَلَكِنْ مَنْ شَرَحَ بِالْكُفْرِ
صَدْرًا فَعَلَيْهِمْ غَضَبٌ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ}

“Whoever disbelieved (made Kufr) in Allah after his belief, except under compulsion, his heart remaining firm in Faith (Imaan); but those who open their breasts to disbelief, on them is wrath from Allah, and theirs will be a great torment.”

(Surah an-Nahl: 106)

The sixth Shubhah: The one who fell into Shirk claims he just wanted to obey Allah and His Prophet (sas). Is not this but the meaning of Tawheed: “To obey Allah absolutely alone?”

Subhaan Allah! It is surprising what the Shaytaan leads people to think while they are following their inclinations. The answer to this invalid claim stated above is that the very first matter in which one must obey Allah is Tawheed, to worship only Him alone. How can I say about someone who does not even know this fundament of our Deen that he serves Allah alone? He does not even know the most important of the matters which Allah has ordered him to do! Subhaan Allah! Do they make all the Mushrikeen to Muslims because they claim to have had a good intention and to serve Allah in all matters? What understanding of Tawheed is this?

The seventh Shubhah: The Hadeeth concerning the man who ordered for his corpse to be burnt

Bukhari and Muslim narrated [...] ‘Uqba ibnu Amr said to Hudhaifa [...] I heard him (sas) say: “Once there was a man on his deathbed, who, losing every hope of surviving said to his family: “When I die, gather for me a large heap of wood and make a fire (to burn me). When the fire eats my meat and reaches my bones, and when the bones burn, take and crush them into powder and wait for a windy day to throw it (i.e. the powder) over the sea”. They did so, but Allah collected his particles and asked him: “Why did you do so?” He replied: “I was afraid of You.” So Allah forgave him.”

Praise be to Allah, they have come upon another argument against themselves. This Hadeeth is the best example to represent the way in which they go astray. So be aware, may Allah guide you and us all to the Truth.

Firstly: This man was not completely ignorant of Allah’s Might. He also did not deny it. He merely did not know about a certain part of Allah’s Power. This is what those who are called scholars (with good reason) confirmed again and again, in contrast to the ignorant people. The ignorant people do not wait until they reach the Truth; so they rejoice immediately upon hearing this Hadeeth thinking it supports their Bid’ah and before they are able to gain Guidance and Truth by means of this Hadeeth, they leave it behind with nothing but their dalaal. The evidence for the explanation of this Hadeeth is as follows:

1. The man ordered his family to undertake this procedure because he knew of Allah’s immense Power.
2. He ordered this to his family out of fear of Allah. Such a great fear it was that Allah forgave him and allowed him to enter Jannah. Why would he be afraid of a Lord, whose Power he supposedly denies, of an incapable Lord (we seek refuge by Allah)?
3. In another narration the man said: “Oh Lord, out of fear of You (did I do all this).” From the Hadeeth it is undoubtedly clear that he was certain of his Lord and he was therefore a Mu’min. Further, he also knew the duty of practicing Tawheed ur-Rububiyya (to practice the exclusive worship of Allah alone regarding His actions, qualities and names and giving nothing a share with them); and he fulfilled this duty. There is no doubt that the man did not deny the quality of Allah’s great Power (Qudra) entirely.
4. A person who denies Allah’s Power completely and claims to have faith in an incapable lord who does not have the power to do anything, is from the worst of the Kuffaar. This claim is a mockery and was never heard from a person who claims to have Imaan.
5. In another narration of the Hadeeth, he says: “By Allah, if my Lord is able to put me together again then He will punish me with a penalty such as He has not inflicted on anyone before!”

Secondly: As we have already seen, he feared Allah greatly – as everything in the Hadeeth hints to. Fear of Allah belongs to the mightiest forms of worship and greatest Tawheed.

Thirdly: He did not doubt the resurrection in general. The only matter in which he had a doubt was that Allah will be able to put him together again after his corpse had undergone the procedure he ordered to be carried out. This is clearly apparent from the Hadeeth.

Fourthly: The man did not deny the resurrection and the Power of Allah in general. However, that which he said was definitely Kufr for someone who has already received the knowledge through the Message. Thus, this man can only be excused if he is excused in this point for his ignorance, which would be the case if the man were absolutely not able to receive knowledge. This knowledge and its proofs however, without any doubt, did not reach the man mentioned in the Hadeeth. One who knows the Deen will not hesitate in this matter. This is obvious to everyone who has some knowledge concerning the matters of Imaan. One who lives in this time of ours, a time in which it is very easy to obtain knowledge, would indeed become a Kaafir by means of such a statement. And why not? He has Allah's Book lying in front of him saying that He is "capable of everything".

Fifthly: The Hadeeth is similar to the Hadeeth which was mentioned earlier concerning Dhaatu Anwaat and the Hadeeth of Mu'adh (as well as another Hadeeth which is not part of our topic, that of Haatib ibnu Abi Balta'a). Hence, one cannot say that the man in this Hadeeth worshipped something other than Allah and that he was a Mushrik and Allah simply forgave him and therefore they can use this Hadeeth as an evidence for their Dalaal! Such a malicious and hypocritical demonstration of evidences will never be allowed for them. And how could it be allowed, when it contradicts the entire Deen as you have already seen on the basis of the crushing evidences mentioned before.

Below are some Ahaadeeth narrated by Imam Imaam Ahmad, which demonstrate very clearly the falsehood they extract from the Ahaadeeth. I have stated them intentionally at the end so that the reader might discover this falsehood easily himself; this will very quickly be clear to everyone who wants to know the Truth. He will be able to understand this by combining all the different Islamic texts (in our case combining this Hadeeth with the rest of the clear evidences from this Deen) and all doubts and ambiguities created in his mind will disappear, insha Allah. Everything becomes clear for one whose attention and intention are not interrupted by his whims and desires. Anyone who has understood the basis of this Deen knows that the man concerned in the Hadeeth was not a Mushrik but a Muwahhid. On account of this Ibnu Abd il-Barr said about him: "And this statement – should it be correct – erases every problem raised concerning the Imaan of this man. Even if the narration of this statement is not correct, its meaning is definitely correct. Since the principles of the Deen support this statement and the mind makes it necessary." (Fath al-Barr.... 2:297)

Abdullah ibnu Mas'ood narrated: "This man did absolutely nothing good except practicing Tawheed..." Abu Huraira (ra) has also narrated the same from the Prophet (sas).

It was narrated by Abu Huraira, Al-Hassan and Ibnu Seereen from the Prophet (sas), who said: "There was a man among them who lived before you who did nothing good (in his life) except practice Tawheed... Allah forgave him (due to his fear of Allah). He did nothing good except practice Tawheed."

The eighth Shubhah: They claim that we say, “A person who commits Shirk cannot be excused, likewise in the case of Kufr. Kufr committed by mistake is forgiven”. They ask then: “But what if Shirk is committed by mistake? Are they not the same?”

Firstly, nobody who is of sound mind said something as such. In fact it was earlier mentioned that Kufr and Shirk are both excused if committed under compulsion. We also know additionally that if someone says something unintentionally and accidentally then his statement does not count – it is as though he never said it. Just like the one who said out of enjoyment, “Oh Allah, you are my slave and I am your master”. It is undoubtedly clear that someone as such did not commit Shirk. Amongst the most ignorant of people use this issue in order to prove that a person who worships something or someone besides Allah is possibly an ignorant “Muslim”. So if a person utters words like the man mentioned above did, then he is confronted and asked whether his statement was a mistake and he replies, “No, I did not make a mistake. Allah is my slave and I am His master. I am master over everything. No one gives me orders but I give orders to everyone!” Such a person (they say) according to their Manhaj (methodology), could be an ignorant Muslim! After all, they do argue in favor of their opinion using the issue of “accidental utterance”. Subhaan Allah! Glorified is He, who created the Jahl and sent nine tenths of it to them!

A person who narrates (or dictates) to others of matters of Kufr or Shirk and who therefore utters Kufr or Shirk is also not guilty of committing either of them. The dictator of these words is not considered a Kaafir or a Mushrik. Just like accidentally uttering Kufr, also dictating or informing others of Kufr is not considered as falling into Kufr because his words are not considered as his own. Otherwise every Muslim would fall into Shirk by merely reciting the Qur’an, reciting verses which, if taken out of the context contain Kufr, such as verses where Allah informs us about what the Kuffaar say.

The same is for the one who does not know the reality of a matter; also he does not become a Kaafir, such as a blind man who prostrates not knowing that before him is the statue of an idol. By giving these matters a little bit of thought, one realizes that they do not have anything to do with Shirk, they are all basic matters which do not even need a lot of thinking. You will not find many scholars mentioning these issues in their books and those who have mentioned them did so just casually because they did not expect any person with a sound mind to say something else.

Likewise the one who utters Shirk in his sleep. Anyone with a sound mind would not claim that this person committed Shirk and Allah will forgive him this Shirk. If somebody recites (for instance, from a verse in the Qur’an) that “‘Isa is the son of Allah”, then these were not his words. Nevertheless, the Jahala come along and insist, that by saying such words a person indeed commits Shirk but Allah forgives him. They then continue: “See, not everyone who utters Shirk is therefore immediately a Mushrik. This is the best evidence for the fact that someone who says about himself that he believes ‘Isa (peace be upon him) is the son of Allah and he prostrates before him and before the cross and calls upon him and asks him for help and intercession, that such a person can also be a Muslim and forgiven”. Allahu Akbar! Allahu Akbar! Allahu Akbar! Can you expect something as such from a sane person? I do not know anymore what to say. If one tries with all of his abilities to bring a few Mushrikeen into the Deen, then for some of them the nonsense which they possess continues up to infinity.

Closing words

There exist two additional types of Bida'ah. The Mushrikoon use them in an attempt to bring to perfection their declaration of making all Mushrikeen to Muslims. The people around them are sinking into Riddah, Shirk and Kufr and they are occupied teaching them how to perform proper Wudhu' and giving lectures on topics such as "How to keep my wife happy". I will mention the two abominable innovations briefly here, since the scholars are in agreement also concerning these innovations that they are absolutely incorrect. The representatives of the first Bid'ah claim that Kufr is (only) the insistent resistance – another type of Kufr does not exist by them. So he who turns away from the Message by refusing to learn it, is considered a Jaahil (because he does not even know what the Message contained) who will be forgiven. Once again this contradicts the clear evidences from the Qur'an, Sunnah and Ijmaa'. The explanation in the eleventh irrefutable evidence mentioned above should be enough to understand this matter.

The representatives of the second Bid'ah claim that Qiyyaam ul-Hujjah (bringing the proof, due to which the person then becomes responsible) can only happen by a discussion with the person. Also they contradict the clear evidences from the Qur'an, Sunnah and the Ijmaa'. In reality, obtainment of the proof depends on the location in which a person is, upon this there is an agreement among the scholars and Salaf. So, he who lives amongst Muslims is expected to know the answers to general common questions – altogether and in matters of Tawheed and Shirk; and no 'Aalim (knowledgeable person) ever excused a person who, despite living amongst Muslims did not act as such, whether he committed Shirk or Zina or any deed which he was expected to know about, for he definitely received the Message – as is expected from anyone who is raised up amongst Muslims. If he is ignorant of the Message, he is considered as one who turned away from it and such a person was always treated likewise by the scholars in history. No excuses will help him.

The statement of Shaykh Abdullah ibnu Muhammad ibnu Abd il-Wahhab ought to be enough as an explanation and reply to the second type of Bid'ah mentioned above: "A consensus has been reached on the matter that when someone receives the Message of the Prophet (sas) and despite that he does not implement Imaan, automatically he is a Kaafir. No excuse under the pretext of Ijtihad will be accepted from him. This is due to the general awareness of the proofs and signs of the correctness of the Prophethood of Muhammad (sas)" (Ad-Durar: 10:247). Shaykh Hamd ibnu Nasir said: "The scholars are in agreement that whomsoever the Message of the Prophet (sas) has reached becomes responsible from that moment onwards" (Ad-Durar: 11:72).

The followers of Bid'ah understand all questions (mentioned in this book) and in general incorrectly; every matter becomes unclear for them and none of their affairs are straight – to such an extent that they call someone who prostrates himself before a grave or slaughters for someone other than Allah merely an ignorant Muslim; even if he is living in the center of knowledge of the Qur'an and the Arabic language, even if it is a place where everyone has access to this knowledge (so that he can at least find out that these things are forbidden). With so much Kufr, only downfall can follow! This is indeed the punishment of those who turn away from the Qur'an and Sunnah. They follow their whims and vain desires, which help them to become the friends of the Kaafireen. We seek refuge by Allah from the path which they follow. Oh you cautious reader, may Allah guide you to Islam and let you leave this world as a Muslim. If these matters became clear to you, then you understood why this Deen has not been perceivable and victorious yet.

These abominable innovations mentioned have circulated and have become widespread in the world and have caused countries to collapse. Those who follow these innovations cannot distinguish anymore between friend and enemy. And how should they be able to anyway? Not knowing the fore and aft in matters of Tawheed, how can they be successful? Even if someone clearly and obviously commits Riddah in front of their eyes are they not able to carry out the declaration of Kufr for the Murtadd (the one who apostatized). He is but their beloved and best friend. And among them there are levels of the extent they submit themselves to Dalaal.

So nowadays we find people among those who battle and also among their leaders, those who do not know the basis of this Deen and thus declare as Khawaarij those who defend the basis of this Deen. On the other hand they attempt to befriend those who commit the worst type of apostasy and appear most calm and brotherly before them – merely for the wellbeing of the war on the battlefield. So you find them singing poems of praise and glorification for the Kuffaar of Hamas. And has not Hamas become the greatest Taghoot in Palestine? What do they understand of the fundament of this Deen, from Wala' and Bara', from Kufr and Imaan? The leading men of Hamas are Tawagheet who proclaim day and night that they never intended to and never will rule according to the Qur'an and Sharee'ah. Subhaan Allah! I do not understand this procedure. How can someone whom Allah has freed from the human Shayateen and their Tawagheet, someone who has obtained a certain rank, who does not need to be afraid of anyone, how can it be that such a man allows the Shaytaan to whisper to him: "What will the people say about you if you declare such and such person truly as a Kaafir?" They humiliate themselves by running after those Jews who describe themselves as Muslims. It is as if I can almost hear them mocking and laughing at you. Why do you not just tell them: "You Zanaadiqa (those who call themselves Muslims but simultaneously adhere to Kufr beliefs), you Kuffaar!" Just like Shaykh ul-Islam yelled at those, whose Kufr was not even close to that mentioned here. And another of their leaders declares an earlier leader of the Hamas (who has died already) as "Shaheed of this Ummah" even though it is well known that he died upon the worst of Kufr. He was a man who showed his compliance to democracy and said that its laws are obligatory for them (for Hamas). Similarly, he also said that judgement should be made according to that which the people of the Palestinian nation decide – no matter what happens, even if they should decide for communism. This means that if the people would opt for Kufr, atheism and negligence of the Creator, the corresponding laws would become obligatory for him and Hamas to apply. Subhaan Allah, he calls such a man "Shaheed of this Ummah"? This man died for his motherland and not for Allah. The dalaal of this man is engraved deeply in his statements and scriptures. You find others saying to those scholars of Kufr, who are day and night occupied in twisting this Deen, “Oh our scholars! If you leave us, we will never leave you!”

Another one calls the founder of Ikhwaan in Egypt (who have also submitted to the Taghoot) also the “Shaheed of this Ummah” even though he himself wrote a whole book, “Al-Hasaad ul-Murr”, dealing with the unimaginable Kufriyyaat committed by Hassan al-Banna (the founder of Ikhwaan). Additionally, in his book he mentions and explains the biggest types of Shirk of the Raafidah (Shi’a) – finally concluding, that actually all of them are Muslims except those to whom the evidences have reached (man qaamatil hujjatu alaihim). Then you find people trying to prove this Dalaal by claiming that Shaykh ul-Islam also declared the mentioned Raafidah as Muslims. How could Shaykh ul-Islam have ever said that, when we know that he described the Raafidah clearly and said several times concerning them: “They are Kuffaar, and he whoever does not declare them as Kuffaar is himself a Kaafir”. Another statement exposing the real face of this author is his claim that the Ottoman Empire was an Islamic State until 1924 – just another of his statements representing his ignorance of Tawheed.

Then there is one who is described as the “Shaykh of the Mujaahideen”, one who admitted that if his television were stolen he would go to court to the Taghoot and let him judge according to laws other than the laws of Allah! Among them are those who have actually carried out such actions, falling into Shirk and thus becoming Mushrikoon. We supplicate to Allah to protect us and to guide them and us to the Truth, Amin.

Is there someone who believes that all these people and leaders have understood the basis on which this Deen is constructed? So one sees why they cannot distinguish between the Awliyaa of the Rahman and the Awliyaa of the Shaytaan. We supplicate to Allah to keep us away from all sorts of Bid’aat, Amin! And Allah is the All-Knower and He has knowledge over everything.

Finally, I would like to thank Shaykh Abu Maryam Abd ur-Rahman ibnu Tila’ al-Mikhlif for his precious comments and references (which I partially included in this book, as cited). May Allah reward him much. May Allah forgive him, us and all the Muslims and unite us with our Prophet (sas) and his brothers, the other Prophets in Jannat ul-Firdaws; underneath Allah’s Mighty Throne. May Allah let us be the inheritors of Paradise and may He let the honour and dignity of the Mu’mineen return. Oh Allah, let us die as Muslims and Oh Allah, unite us with the Saaliheen!

Praise be to Allah, He is the source of strength and with His help the first edition of the English version has been completed. From Allah alone comes the success. May Allah’s peace and blessings be upon our Prophet. All praise and glorification belong to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.
