| Definition: "Anyone regarding whom the servant goes beyond the due bounds, |
| whether it is someone worshipped, obeyed, or followed". |
| The heads of at-Taaghoot are five: |
| 1 - Iblees, may Allaah curse him |
| 2 - Whoever is pleased with being worshipped |
| 3 - Whoever calls the people to his own worship |
| 4 - Whoever claims the knowledge of the unseen |
| 5 - Whoever judges by other than what Allaah revealed |
| "Whoever disbelieves in Tâghût and believes in Allâh, then he has grasped the |
| most trustworthy handhold that will never break. And Allâh is All-Hearer, |
