The ‘Alaamah Aboo Abdir-Rahmaan Muhammad Naasir-ud-Deen al-Albaanee-rahimahullah-says in his book, “Hijaab-ul-Maratil-Muslimah fee-ul-Kitaabi was-Sunnah” (The Hijaab of the Muslim Woman according to the Book and the Sunnah) on page 15:

The conditions of the hijaab are (the following):

- 1-That the hijaab is capable of covering the entire body except for what is exempt (from being covered).
- 2-That it is not itself decorative.
- 3-That it is opaque not transparent.
- 4-That it is loose fitting not tight.
- 5-That it is not scented with perfume.
- 6-That it does not resemble the clothing of a man.

7-That it does not resemble the clothing of the disbelieving women.

8-That it is not ostentatious clothing.
